K. D. WALDO, SUPERINTENDENT

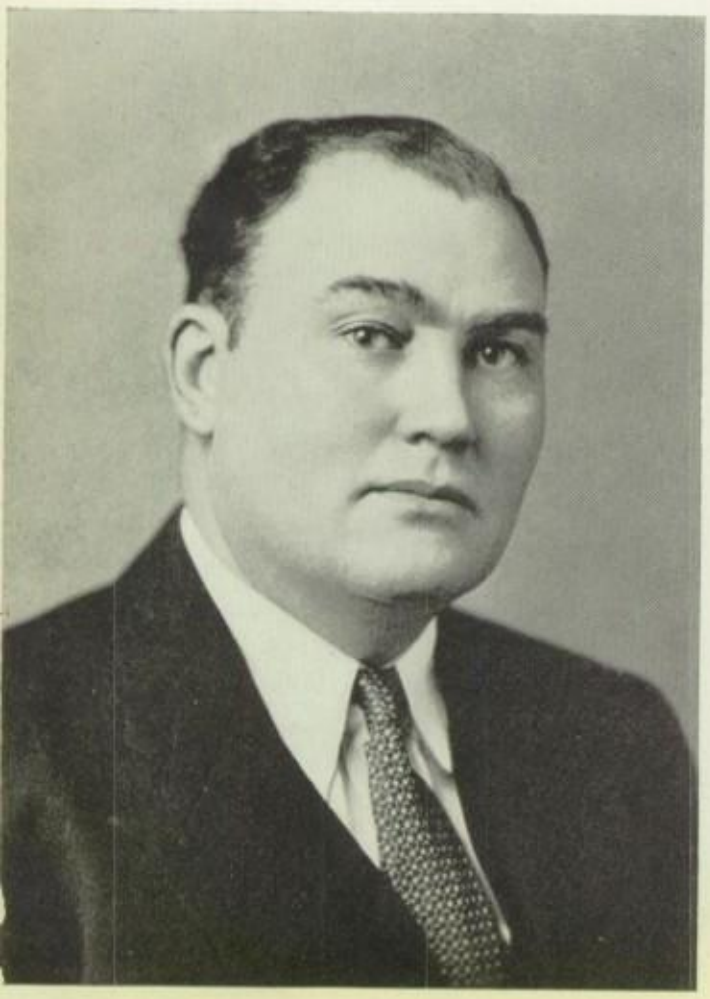
In sending out a graduating class, East High owes much of the credit to genial, jovial, kind-hearted Mr. Waldo, superintendent of the east side schools.

Harking back through our high-school days, we remember with a smile the painstaking letters we wrote Mr. Waldo, telling him of our hopes and ambitions in life. That was in Junior High, four years ago, but Mr. Waldo kept every single letter in anticipation of the senior banquet, when the letters were again produced, to be read among smiles and memories. How earnest we were, and how confident!

Mr. Waldo is especially close to the hearts of East High students, for he was their principal from 1914 to 1928, at which time he took the office of superintendent. The latter position he has held for six years with great success, and we all hope he will continue to serve for many more years.

Mr. Waldo is prominent in Illinois school affairs, having held the office of president of the Illinois Teachers' Association. He is also well known in Aurora circles, being a member of the Lions' Club, as well as serving on the Boards of Directors of the Y.M.C.A., the Improvement Building & Loan Association, and the Juvenile Protective Association.

As we go out into the world to conquer, we shall carry with us the memory of our superintendent, who has always been ready to extend a helping hand, and whose guiding influence will remain with us in years to come.



O. V. WALTERS, PRINCIPAL

For four years the Ship of 1934 has sailed through stormy waters in which lurked unseen reefs to throw us off the course and disable us. At last, however, we see the open sea and clear water ahead, as graduation day approaches. At that time our Ship will drop its able pilot who has so successfully guided us through dangerous waters, and we will be on our own.

Mr. Walters has been our Master Pilot for these four years, and due to his influence and intelligence we have come through with flying colors. The lessons in navigation he has taught will be invaluable to us, and his guidance will extend far beyond our four years with him.

When not absorbed in plotting our course, Mr. Walters has often turned to aid us in our own personal troubles, and in such moments did we greatly appreciate his friendship, and his wise advice. Perhaps we were not always in accord with his views, but later days taught us that he was right, and we silently paid tribute to his judgment.

An orator of no mean ability, Mr. Walters is prominent not only in matters of education, but has held several offices which only men of merit and integrity could successfully fill, and is known to community and state as a man of initiative and leadership.

Graduation day, and open water ahead! We drop our pilot and with deep regret continue alone on unchartered seas. Mr. Walters, a firm believer in student government, has trained us in the navigation of our Ship, and we are confident. Full of hope, we say: "Full-speed ahead!"

CURRICULUM

Doctor, lawyer, merchant, chief, stenographer, teacher, cook, dressmaker, housewife — elementary training for all these occupations and many others is offered in the East High curriculum.

Both cultural and practical subjects are offered the students, for both are necessary when he tries to make his own living.

English is one of the most essential courses. Four years of English are required of every student. During the first two years he studies composition and grammar besides various classics. Third year English is devoted to American Literature. To complete the fourth year of English required for graduation, one has a choice of many electives. Two of these are English VII and VIII, which comprise a study of English Literature from the early legendary writers to the present poet laureates. Other electives are journalism, which deals with newspaper publications; public speaking, which is really a course in effective speaking; and Business English, a subject devoted to the study of the business vernacular, business writings, and salesmanship.

Four sciences are included in the school's curriculum. General science is compulsory. It gives the basic principles of all sciences and supplies the student with a wealth of practical knowledge of ordinary things. Biology, chemistry, and physics are laboratory sciences and elective. Biology is the science of animal and plant life and furnishes one with a thorough knowledge of the everyday functions of his own body. In chemistry the elements and all their properties are made applicable to ordinary living. Physics is the science dealing with mechanics, heat, light, sound, and electricity. This, like the other sciences, contains much valuable information for John Doe's life.

Two years of Latin, Spanish, German, and French are offered here. The first is considered a "dead" language and is studied chiefly as a fundamental to the English language. The other three are taught to be spoken so that a person having taken one of the courses can speak the language as fluently as a native. Each of these language courses sponsors a club to which all students taking the course, are eligible.

The social sciences taught at East High are American history, world history, civics, and economics. The first is a very interesting study of our country from the time of its discovery to the close of the World War. Students have discovered that a country's history can be interesting, proving the old adage, "Truth is stranger than fiction." World History is a bird's eye view of the activities and development of man from the cave dwellers to the present day. Economics, a study of the economic and industrial organization of the United States, is a subject which is very applicable and valuable at a time when our country is in such serious economic conditions. A study of modern American problems and the political setup of the United States is civics. One year of social science is compulsory for graduation, but the subjects are elective.

Included in the mathematics department are arithmetic, algebra, plane and solid geometry, and trigonometry. Arithmetic is fundamentally the same in high school as in grade school though more advanced in treatment. Algebra I and II take up the solving of equations for the unknown. Advanced Algebra is, as its name implies, an advanced course in algebra. Plane and Solid Geometry deal with the study of lines, angles, polygons, and circles. Trigonometry is chiefly a preparatory course in engineering.

The commercial department is becoming more and more important at East High and includes many valuable subjects for the student who is planning to enter the business world. Typing is a subject which every student, regardless of his post graduate expectations, should include in his course of study, because of its usefulness in every kind of work. Bookkeeping acquaints the student with transactions and terms he comes in contact with every day, besides a general knowledge of business. Four semesters of shorthand are offered, the fourth being very much like a regular office routine.

Art may be taken as a major or a minor, depending upon the amount of laboratory periods. The first art course deals with lettering, design and color through the use of the alphabet, and the sketching of figures, outdoor scenes, and still life. Art II takes up the history of art, commercial art, posters, and water color paintings of outdoor scenes and still life.

The practical subjects for girls are home course, sewing, cooking, and home nursing. Those for boys are manual training, mechanical drawing, and printing. The home course is a study of planning a home, its site, type of architecture, and interior decorating, and of budgeting household finances. Home nursing instructs girls in tending to sick members of their family. The printing department prints the issues of the Auroran and practically all school programs, tickets, etc.

Besides the band, the orchestra, and the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs, which are extra-curricular activities, the music department offers courses in music appreciation and harmony.

Physical training is required of every student for four semesters unless he brings a permit signed by a doctor to excuse him. In these gymnasium classes the students not only participate in sports, but learn the essentials of correct posture and keeping in good physical condition.

JULES BARNAT, President

There is really no end to the qualifications that stamped Jules Barnat as the natural choice for the presidency of the Senior Class.

A background of extra curricular activities, along with natural pleasantness, developed him into the fine leader that he is. His two years of forensic experience as a prominent debator proved invaluable to him as president. Likewise, his willingness to serve, along with his ability to lead, brought him the office of vice-president in our Student Council.

BOB OESTER, Vice-President

Bob Oester, vice-president of the Senior Class, has been one of our best liked leaders. He proved the ability to assume his many duties by earning a place on the honor roll several times during his four years.

In his junior year, Bob rose from the position of sports reporter to editor-in-chief of the Auroran, a bi-monthly publication. His ready smile won for him a membership in Hi-Y and his journalistic skill secured his introduction into Quill and Scroll and Press Club.

BETTY McLALLEN, Secretary-Treasurer

"Betty Mac!—We're going to write a story about you!"

Finally convinced of our earnestness, the merry-eyed secretary of the Class of '34 became her helpful self and "admitted" that she had been on the honor roll several times, a Delphi secretary, the French Club's vice-president, an Auroran staff member, and a popular participant of nearly every activity of her class and school.

We appreciate Betty's leadership, but that does not overshadow our appreciation of her sweet character.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the constituents of the class of 1934 A. D., being in a generous mood, sound mind, and insane judgment, do hereby, wherefore, and howsoever, bequeath the following articles which we have had in our possession despite the long arm of the law. Unless the recipients of said articles use them in an appropriate manner our attorneys will collect said articles from said recipients.

To our successors, the juniors, because of their "hot" reputation, we leave the city fire department. May the hook and ladder wagon help them to reach the high marks set by the graduating class; may the siren arouse them to greater deeds and may the helmets crown them as they need to be crowned; and with this goes our senior dignity, if any.

Edwin Ploetz leaves his stacks of magazines to the sophisticated sophomores to read and digest carefully so that in 1936, when they are seniors, they will obtain at least a portion of the knowledge possessed by the class of '34.

Last as well as least, to the freshmen we bequeath our ability, precious as it is, to progress, to comprehend, and to study. Having done this we can only sit back and pray that they will use it to its best advantage. We also give them an escalator so they can take the easiest way to fame.

Manley Perry leaves his many duties with their inevitable worries to Bob Reuss, if he is foolish enough to accept them.

Irene Backstrom wills her melodious voice to June Henrikson.

Henry McCance, the Walter Winchell of our class, hands over his license to dig up all the dirt he can find, to Joe Suhler, who needs the license.

Betty Mylius receives the traditional peroxide bottle from Connie Clare.

The loving cup is passed on to Francis Hearn and Margaret Jeffers from Bob Oester and Virginia Reavell, on the condition that they live up to its meaning as well as Bob and "Jinny" did.

To Mary Jane Gage, Marian Merritt wills her reserve and dignity.

Charles Hutchison gladly leaves his beet-red blush to Robert Johnson.

To her sister Ruth, Florence Couve passes on her ability to "trip the light fantastic."

Mary Whiteis is the lucky recipient of Betty Trimble's dramatic powers.

Billy Nunn and Paul Stuart bequeath their athletes' feet to Clem Coleman.

Eddie Cooper just leaves and is very glad of it.

Gertrude Churchill and Mildred Kastoll give Grayce Schultz their bottle of henna rinse providing Grayce destroys the label.

Bob Trimble leaves his heart to Dorothy Dunn.

To all the coaches, the class extends its good will and hopes they will have very prosperous seasons next year.

We will the Fox River to Mr. Walters to catch all the tears he will shed at our parting. All good things come to an end eventually.

Jules Barnat leaves twenty-one cents, so the next senior class president can buy himself some aspirins for all his headaches.

Having heard that Billy Schwingle wishes to become a great orator, Thais Hamilton leaves him the soap box which gave her a lift towards success.

To Roy Connor go Shirley Palmer's easel, paint brush, and paint (with Shirley's permission, of course).

Upon his graduation, Raymond Drew will send his car (?) to the automobile cemetery on the left side of the Joliet highway going south.

Herbert Chudzick wills his dynamic serve and volley to Catherine Doering for her use at Wimbledon.

Katherine Lee leaves her line to Merry Jane Thomson in case Merry Jane's grows old.

Being in a very generous mood, Ruthanne Goddard and Shirley Frank bequeath their diamond rings to the school to pawn if its funds get lower.

Shirley Howard leaves two toothpicks to Betty Balskey so Betty can have large, brown, alluring eyes, too.

To Jack Schultz, John Miller passes on his ability to brag.

Jack Kilgore is the lucky boy to receive Carl Berkhout's and Landrith Parker's scholastic averages.

Harold Gleason wills his "specs" which make him appear so studious, to George Schindlebeck.

A very valuable book, "How to Make Up", is Rosella Barbel's gift to her kid sister, Loretta.

Al Setz leaves the West Side alone.

Because she can't help it, Peg Ellis leaves all her lost possessions to the school.

Dorothy Frauenhoff wishes to give her bangs to Ruth Cook, so Ruth can make a lot of noise next July 4.

Bob Richardson will inherit all the pictures Bill Hahn drew of him.

Joe Hamerly leaves his Tarzan ways to Thomas Alderson, so Tom can shake off his title of being "the politiest boy at East High".

Ruth Brinkman wills her "hot fiddle" to Dorothy Jean Dryer.

Everett Schumacher leaves his determination to Bill DeLess.

Now that the day of reckoning has come, Earl Akerlow wishes to return all the things he took from the chemistry laboratory, to Mr. Stutz.

Doris Bowering is leaving—for California.

To Donald Underwood, Joe Gleason bequeaths his red ears which are a sign that somebody's always talking about him.

Helen Richardson leaves her Spanish beauty to Viola Miller, so Viola can have variety.

Esther and Helen Wilhelmi leave their book on "How We Tell Ourselves Apart" to Pauline and Virginia Warren.

Virginia Frenier is unlucky, for she receives Daisy Cross's continual chatter.

Fred Carter leaves his ability at ping pong to Joe O'Connell.

Ned Stakemiller inherits some much needed stature from Burton Burkhardt, who can spare a few inches.

Margaret Bourelle relinquishes her title as "an all-round athlete" to Miriam Nelson.

A book, "I Owe it All to Perseverance" is Ralph McKinney's gift to Harold Benson.

With many sobs and sniffles, Betty McLallen and Betty Ritenour leave their stand-in with the Paramount ushers to Mariam Dripps and Lorraine Cook.

To Art Moore, goes Roy Solifburg's horse laugh and also a year's free parking space at the local livery stable.

Marian Boyd passes on her book of practical guidance on "How to Hold Your Man" to Betty Kelley, hoping it will do Betty more good than it did her.

Oscar Federspiel leaves his all-conference attitude to Andy Sabados.

Kenneth Hennig wills his collection of off-stage noises to the drama class.

The senior members of Delphi leave Mr. Hunter an iron rod in order to keep order when order won't be kept.

The class leaves Miss Kish, the telephone operator, a megaphone so she can save her vocal chords.

Erna Zimmerman passes on the last seat in every class to Jake of the same name.

Ralph Eberly leaves his bundle of notes from Shirley Howard to the teachers of English I as interesting reading material when freshman themes get dull.

Charles Tennant can have Floyd Parkhurst's parking space on Jackson near Benton, if he promises not to be selfish about it.

Howard Friewald leaves his footsteps behind him.

So he will not be forgoten, Jimmy Jannecke has placed his fingerprints on the walls of all his class rooms.

Al Spencer leaves his ability at impersonating Jimmy Durante to Robert Critton.

June Gawzner succeeds Daphne Johnson as Gracie Allen II, but she must live up to all that the title signifies always.

Virginia Solger leaves her babyish ways which make such a hit with the boys to Dorothy Weigel.

Eleanor Stoner gives Dorothy Keck the fifty curlers with which she curled the back of her hair and hopes Dorothy will not find them so hard to sleep on.

Ray Gasper leaves his desire to learn to croon to Frank McKinney.

To Miss Twitchell, we leave an automatic regulator for ventilation of her room.

Eloise Crowel leaves an extra pair of ice skates to Kathryn Lindstrom so she will have something to fall back on.

Angela Unbehaun bequeaths a copy of her "toothpick" diet to Betty Harding.

To Mr. Miller and Miss Martens we leave a book on the good old N. R. A.

Roberta Abell wills her gracefulness to Miss Bredlow, Miss Jenks and Miss Doolen.

Lloyd Mathers leaves his shaving kit to Francis Hildebrand on the condition that Francis use it.

Florence Summers wills her meek voice to Leona Covert.

Edith Andersen bequeaths her winning ways with the teachers to Evelyn Frisk, so "Evie" can talk in class whenever she wants to.

James Mathews leaves his "half-cracked" ideas to Robert Jungels.

"How to Play Poker" is Bill Gawzner's helpful gift to Charles Pyle.

Everett Swanson leaves his ease at getting by the theater ushers with a child's ticket to Everett Engle.

To Mary Oxie, Madaline Kreitz wills her ability at "speaking pieces," providing Mary does not become shy at making use of it.

Eddie Kaluza leaves his deadly aim to the rest of the basketball squad.

Jeanne Walker is the lucky recipient of Kenneth Lankow's collection of bobby pins. Now Jeanne can train her bangs to curl around her eyes.

Bonita Burkhart leaves a bottle of wave set to Marian Bennet, so Marian can always have a perfect wave, too.

Their ability at constructing model airplanes, Wilber Golz and Richard Thornton pass on to John Bursh.

Wayne Wigton wills his radio sets and all the tinkering he did with them to Glenn Travis.

To Norman Israel, John Wells bequeaths his effeminate characteristics.

Bill Hawking wills his book on the latest dances to Richard Lee, a struggling freshman.

Marian Burrell leaves a perfect example to all the junior girls.

In testimony, hereby, we affix the Gold Seal of the class of 1934.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

1950! Just sixteen years since our graduation from East High. As the old saying goes, "What a lot of water has passed over the dam since then!" Let's take a run out to the Rah! Rah! Moving Picture Studios, Incorporated, in Berrystone, where many of our classmates are trying to earn their bread and water.

Luckily our passes get by "Poker Face" Fred Klebe, the doorman at the Rah! Rah! Studios. Right behind him is his stooge, Oscar Truemper, who helps Fred when business is rushing.

Stanley Edwards and Glenn Jeffers, the studio chauffeurs, take charge of our cars, because we are going to make this trip on foot so we will not miss anything.

First let's stop in to see President Bob Trimble. Louis Jakious, the office boy, tries to tell us the president is busy and can't see us, but he isn't big enough to stop our onward progress. The president's secretary, Violet Schramer, also informs us the president is in conference, but we snap our fingers and continue into his private office. We peek in and see that he is sawing wood with his feet propped upon his desk. Well, we had better leave well enough alone.

In the outer office are many of our old classmates waiting a chance to interview the "chief" about a position.

The nervous girl sitting on the edge of the first seat is Ann Marie Cornell, a W. C. T. U. speaker, who wants to make a serial entitled: "The Evils of Thirst."

On the other side of the room is little Marion Rubenstein, the daredevil motorcycle rider.

The two cheerleaders, Donald Zander and Bob Oberwise, are going through their gymnastics in one corner of the office. They hope to become to the Rah! Rah! Studios what the roaring lion is to M-G-M.

Sitting by the window is Al Franzen, who obtained a chance to enter movies by winning the nation-wide and continent-long contest, sponsored by the Palmolive Soap Company. Al was adjudged of having the best "skin you love to touch." Arthur Jensen ran a close second, but he did not have as rosy cheeks as Al did. Art forgot his bread crusts for a whole week. Tsk!

The sixth and last visitor is Loraine Brady, representing the School Teachers Union for the Betterment of the English Grammar Used by the Actors and Actresses on the Moving Picture Screen before Children of School Age.

So much for the president's office. Now we will take an inspection tour of the various sets where pictures are being made, and ruined, too.

Irene Backstrom and Robert Richards are working strenuously these days having retakes made on the big love scene in the picture, "Move on Rouge." Irene's voice is well adapted to the vitaphone.

Manley Perry, who was so capable of carrying a hundred odd jobs at school, is the director of this picture as well as practically all the other movies made by this studio. Don Tellefsen is his "yes" man.

Charlotte Eiselben is the chief Rah! Rah! scenario writer, while Jean Hannon and Janet McMicken handle the costumes and designing. All of these girls received exprience for their respective work in high school.

At the cameras are Lowell and Norman Buhrman. These boys are making good at this work because their easy-going dispositions tend to cool off the traditionally temperamental stars.

Leola Tews, Harriet Olson, Erna Stallman are the girls who tend to everything from pins to skyscrapers, seeing that they are where they should be when they should be there. They are more commonly known as property girls.

Over there on the set looking something like the interior of a tavern are Jean Smith and Kenneth Christian. Kenneth has just returned from a few years' vacation and again he is playing with Jean. The name of the picture? Oh, yes! "Queen Christmas."

Bernice Rockabrand's new cinema, "I've No Angle," will be started sometime next week. Elmer Rausch will play opposite her if he returns from his honeymoon in time. Mrs. Rausch was the former Mildred Kastoll. The lions which Bernice tames in this picture are John Almasi, John Barber, Carroll Harkins, Ross Webster, and Lyle Leek—in disguise.

They are filming the cellophane number from "Waltzing Lady" in Which Florence Couvé stars on Set 5 now. Frank Smith is Florence's newest leading man. Jack Connors is making a big hit in the numbers in which he dances with the leading lady.

From here we walk a few blocks to a set-up of a large city. It's marked: "Frank Balla—The Show Off And How!" However, two workers there, John Crow and Gilbert Buttles, inform us that the production is held up while they hunt for a new leading lady; Ethel Eriksen walked out the other day because they wouldn't let her chew gum on the set.

The sound of clanking chains draws us toward a penitentiary set where Anthony Boyle is busy hewing out stones along the wall. The name of the movie, subject to change, is "I Was a Link in a Chain Gang."

Something stronger than the sound of clanking chain calls us now. It's our stomachs crying out to be filled. We were so engrossed in our trip we forgot about lunch. Anyway, not much is doing now, for the players also must eat.

Let's take a run and a jump over to the Silk Top Hat, one of the most popular restaurants in Berrystone. We ought to see many of our classmates, for anybody who is anybody here either eats or works at the Sik Top Hat.

Orlando Schmahl is the head chef of the restaurant. His assistant is Dorothy Slaker. Between them they make out some delicious menus. Shoenail soup is one of their favorite dishes. The waitresses here include Myrtle Dowey, Evelyn Cusic, Viola Hemm, Georgia Goerner, LaVyrne Kreitz, Jean Halmagyi, and Emma Voltman. They all wear black dresses with white aprons and silk top hats and look as if they might be extras in a musical comedy.

The stars dance to the low, rythmic music of Bob Hesselbaum and his Sour Six. The members of this dance orchestra are all members of the class of '34. They are: Carl Fauth, who plays the radio; Herbert Gatske, his ear drums; Walter Johnson, on the linoleum; Dean Sadler, a shoe horn, and Don Testin, hookey. Edith Ernst is the orchestra's pianist and Edyth Burkel, the torch singer. When the band strikes up, everyone arises, regardless of what course they are eating and walks onto the dance floor—and out the door.

However, today is some kind of holiday. Everyone stays and some are dancing. We'll take a booth off to one side so we can watch everybody.

The first ones on the floor are Howard Fauth and Rosella Barbel, his wife. They are often referred to as the happiest couple in Berrystone.

Over there is Jane Elfervig, who is very distinguished looking after having won the title of the perfectly poised movie star, lunching with her stand-in, Violet Pederson.

Marian Merritt, the best-dressed woman in Berrystone, is dancing with Roy Solfisburg, who just obtained his third divorce. Divorcee No. 3 is Marian Boyd.

Don Barclay, creator of the famous Michael Rodent comedies, is entertaining Michael and his sweetheart Elmina today. In real life Michael and Elmina are Bob DeWolf and Mary Olar.

Betty Trimble, who is smashing all box-office records by her marvelous character portrayals, just walked in. With her is Mary Godfrey, another character player. Mary's latest is "Lady for a Day and a Half"; "The Early Columbus Bean" is Betty's current release.

The most married woman in Berrystone, Ruthanne Goddard, is dancing with a comparative newcomer, Jack Hall.

So much time for lunch, for our trip isn't half over yet. Just as we leave the Silk Top Hat, we encounter the four Marx brothers, Inc., walking arm-in-arm down the boulevard. In case you have forgotten them they are Groucho, Jules Barnat; Zeppo, Erwin Kieso; Harpo, William Hill; Chico, Robert Haas.

On the subject of comedians the Laurel and Hardy set is right across the way. But we can not go near it because it isn't good to have hysterics right after dinner. Laurel's and Hardy's names on their birth certificates are Carl Schwerer and Wilbur Johnson, respectively.

We next meet the two Bennett sisters, Goldie and Jessie, and Raymond "Tarzan" Burnell strolling along to work.

Ooooh! Look! Dick Bastion, working on "The Man on the Flying Trapeze", has to perform many breath-taking feats. For instance, when he hangs by his nose 758 feet above ground, it is enough to make anyone get the jitters. Playing opposite him is Doris Bowering, who also performs on the swinging bars. Orrin Anderson stands below with a net, ready to catch Doris.

Another musical comedy is being filmed on a set a little farther down the lane. It is being played inside the Wrigley Building. The name of this picture is "Gum Diggers of East High" starring Peg Ellis and Shirley Howard.

The squealing pigs announce the "National Fair" set. Clarence Wolf is the star. The featured players are Betty Walker, Jack Doppelhamer, Ed Schelling, and Sylvia Kish.

In the projection room they are showing some takes of Dick Williams' "Too Little Harmony"; Adolph Schindel's "David Scar 'Em"; Al Spencer's "Schnozzola"; and Minard Utis and Merrit Ford's "Skips, Skips, Hurrah!"

Just beyond the projection room, another picture is being filmed, but we will have to save that for another trip, for there goes the whistle warning the visitors that in five minutes the gates will close. We have to hurry to get our car or else we'll be shut in here all night. As we drive away we are blissfully happy at having seen so many of the old timers.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

It so happened that on the fifth day of September in the year nineteen hundred and thirty, approximately 350 very young and equally ignorant freshmen, soon to be known as the class of '34, entered East High. It was indeed a grave task that confronted the faculty, but with a great sigh they took up their burden and as a result of four years of unceasing effort, have turned out another class no less successful than preceding ones.

With all the odds against them, they set to work when they were Juniors to earn money to finance the various senior activities. With Manley Perry as president, aided by Betty Trimble, vice-president, and Eleanor Stoner, secretary, they set to work to fill the treasury for future needs. The success of the Junior Class Play, entitled "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," and of the "St. Patrick's Hop," presented in March, netted them a neat profit with which to start the senior year.

Early in September, 1933, the class of "34" elected its new leaders. Jules Barnat, outstanding for his forensic ability, was elected president, to be assisted by Bob Oester as vice-president and Betty McLallen as secretary. With new hope and ambition, Bob Trimble was appointed chairman of the finance committee, and thus under the guidance of Misses Martens, Turner, and Galbraith, and Messrs. Stutz, Attig, Geil, and Gunderson, they faced their last year with their aim far ahead of them—the publishing of a 1934 Speculum despite the financial depression.

The members unanimously voted to undertake the project without the financial aid of the merchants. The Senior Class Play, entitled "The Late Christopher Bean," was presented and pronounced unusually successful. The money from both the Junior and Senior plays along with that raised from numerous dances, candy sales, card parties, and Speculum subscriptions, financed the year book.

From a group so large, it is not surprising that a number of them proved to be competent and promising leaders in various fields.

Those deserving credit for their scholastic ability number twelve. Landrith Parker, LaVerne Kreitz, Ruth Johnson, Carl Berkhout, Marion Burrell, Ruth Brinkman, Robert DeWolf, Connie Clare, Hildegard Fuchs, Betty McLallen, Virginia Reavell, and Jean Smith made either the high honor roll or honor roll every year.

Manley Perry was very prominent both in school and organization activities. He did outstanding work in debate, and in his Junior year represented East High in the literary meet. He was also president of Student Council, the leader of the Junior class and manager of the football team. Jules Barnat and Thais Hamilton also deserve recognition for their outstanding work in the forsenic field.

Betty Trimble and Connie Clare both deserve recognition for their extra curricular activities. Betty was elected president of the Girls' Club in her Junior year, assisted by Connie Clare and Margaret Ellis. All three did excellent work in both class plays. Connie stands out especially from the group for her remarkable musical ability.

Edith Anderson was chosen president of the G. A. A. with Peg Ellis as vice president, and Margaret Bourelle, secretary.

Several seniors did outstanding work in the literary field. The Auroran staff was headed by Bob Oester, with excellent editorial work being done by Shirlye Frank and Martha Hargrave. Virginia Reavell, Betty Trimble, and Bob Hesselbaum headed the Press Club, the membership of which was made up chiefly of seniors chosen from the Auroran Staff.

In the athletic field several senior boys rose to new heights. Howard Fauth, president of the Boys' Club in his junior year, was also elected captain of the football team of "33". Other prominent "A" men on the team were Bill Hawking, Bill Johnson, Al Franzen, "Ossie" Federspiel, Jack Connors, and John Miller. Hawking, Franzen, and Federspiel were elected to the all conference team at the end of the season, while Captain Fauth made the second all conference team. Louis Jakious led the pony eleven and was also chosen lightweight basketball captain. Glenn Jeffers and Stanley Ellertson were also prominent figures in lightweight football. Jack Connors and Frank Smith did excellent work on the basketball floor, as did Bob Oehrlein and Eddie Kaluza for the lightweight team. Both Bill Nunn and Paul Stuart made a name for themselves in track.

Thus, it is very evident, that as vacancies appeared among the various organizations and activities, members of the class of "34" ably stepped in and assumed the positions and responsibilities, and at the same time revealed their ability for leadership. It is likely that this graduating class contains a number of tomorrow's leaders. At any rate, several of them bear watching in the near future.

How different from the timid little group that entered East High four years ago are these 275 confident, hopeful students who have experienced the thrill of wearing a cap and gown, of receiving a diploma, and of being graduated from this school to go out into the world to make of ourselves what we will. Whether we shall make our lives a success or a failure depends upon us alone.

With glad hearts and happy memories of the past four years, we turn to the future, hopeful and confident of what it has in store for us.

JUNIORS

ROBERT REUSS, President

"A word for every friend; a friend for every word." That's Bob Reuss, the leader of the class of '35. Not content with being the earnest student personified, Bob is extremely versatile, being prominent in nearly every extra-curricular field.

Bob evidently believes in starting off on the right foot, for as a freshman he was a member of the Debate Squad and the Auroran Staff.

To follow up his good lead, he was elected president of the Latin Club, and was moved to the "A" Debate team in his second year. As a junior he rounded out the year by assuming the multiple duties of sports editor of the Auroran, vice-president of the National Forensic League, captain of the Affirmative Debate Squad, president of Student Council and also of the Junior Class.

JACK SCHULZ, Vice-President

Jack Schultz is a quiet person; certainly he must have been destined to be vice-president of the Junior Class. His quiet manner has carried him a long way, for in his three years of high school life, he has accomplished much to qualify him for a responsible position.

As an honor student, a man of position, and a friend, Jack has assumed several extra-curricular offices. He has been president of the French Club, and an active member of Hi-Y, Debate and the Band. He also took a part in the Junior Class Play.

Seriously interested in the band, Jack feels that someday this will be his life's work.

EVELYN FRISK, Secretary-Treasurer

"The best friend in the world!" These words describe "Evie" to a "T". Her cheerful smile and happy disposition have caused her to be loved by everyone, and have aided her greatly in becoming the splendid leader that she is. It takes brains as well as personality to be high in one's studies and to assume such responsibilities as Evelyn has. However, "Evie" has both of these along with an unusual amount of vitality which makes her active in athletics as well as band work. She will always be remembered as the president of the Girls' Club, secretary of the Student Council, and as one of the leading reporters for the Auroran.

Section C, Miss Garbe

The parting of the ways came for our section last January when we were divided among other groups to make room for the incoming Freshmen.

Our section did not have a wealth of those much-coveted slips of paper known as superior notices, but Nathanael Hill made the high honor roll and several made the honor roll.

Katharine Govai was elected head of the Spanish Club during the year. Francis Hearn was the heavy-weight basketball captain, as well as secretary-treasurer of the Boys' Club.

Musical talent was represented by John Krauss, a member of the band and orchestra. Margaret Jeffers and Robert Johnson played in orchestra and band respectively.

In girls' athletics Margaret Jeffers held the offices of junior basketball and volleyball captain.

Two students, Thais Hamilton and Nathanael Hill, contributed their efforts to the debate club. On the Auroran staff, Iris Minot was active. She also belonged to the Press Club, and took part in the Biennial Variety Show. Daphne Johnson was an understudy in the Junior Class play and also had a part in the annual Christmas play, as did Francis Hearn and Robert Jungles. Members who took part in the Boys' Club Minstrel were John Krauss and Robert Johnson.—Iris Minot.

Section C, Miss Baird

Section 215 is open for inspection! The line forms on the right. Miss Baird, our much-enduring section officer, will guide the party.

First, we have presidents. You must not pet them. If you get that close, they will think you are committee-members and start telling you what to do. That is what makes them good presidents. They are Robert Reuss, president of the Junior Class and the Student Council and Jack Schultz, president of French Club and vice president of the Junior Class.

Don't scream! That gnashing of teeth is just Robert Richardson and Joe Suhler trying to get in Auroran assignments under the deadline. "Jody" is an "A" team debater—that explains the furrowed brow and look of deadly intelligence.

"12-24-61-72" No, we don't have a kindergarten. This is Paul Seifrid and Curtis Stewart rehearsing football plays.

Put your hands over your eyes and peek through your fingers. We have a real desperado. Henry Shannon is the name. The occupation? President of the Rifle Club. A deadly shot, it is rumored.

We won't be responsible for those who have weak hearts. That noise, as of a siren and a thunderstorm, is Maurice Misner and Jean Stubbs practising for the Chicago Chorus.—Jean Stubbs.

SECTION C, MISS MORRISON

Back Row—Ellertson, Jeffers, Chudzick, Fredrickson, Dohan, G. Brownell, Bollinger, Freeman, Burkel.

Second Row—Fuller, Ernst, Alderson, Saloga, D. Brownell, Carter, Flammang, Frisk, Bogdon.

Front Row—Weber, Eisleben, Emmerling, Fowler, Miss Morrison, Dunn, Fuchs, Carter, Coats.

SECTION D, MISS HOLADAY

Second Row—Schwartz, Reiland, Stallman, Stubbs, Guzeman, Mesaros, Fox, Seifried, Schuldt.

Section C, Miss Morrison

Many members of Miss Morrison's section took important parts in the history of East High this year. High honor roll was made by Thomas Aldersen, while the honor roll was attained by Harley Fredrickson, Hildegard Fuchs, and Evelyn Frisk. The people who represented our section in the Student Council were Evelyn Frisk and Robert Burkel; in the Boys' Club, Gilbert Brownell with Fred Carter as alternate, and in the Girls' Club, Gladys Emmerling was representative and Dorothy Dunn, alternate.

We are very proud to have Evelyn Frisk in our section for besides being the president of the Girls' Club for the coming year, she has brought honor to us in many ways. Evelyn also acted as secretary-treasurer of the Student Council.

Three members of our section, John Nieman, Gilbert and Daniel Brownell, took part in the minstrel show; Evelyn Frisk, in the Junior Class Play; and two, John Nieman and Evelyn Frisk, played in the Variety Show. Four of our number, Gilbert Brownell, John Nieman, Glen Jeffers, Stan Ellertson, were on the football squad and the latter was a member of the heavyweight basketball squad. Honor roll for perfect attendance was attained by Thomas Alderson, Fred Carter, Herbert Chudzic, and Hildegarde Fuchs.—JOHN NIEMAN.

Section D, Miss Holaday

Our section has had an excellent scholastic record this year. We are second in the senior division, with an average of 3.298, which is a great improvement over preceding years. This splendid record was made possible by a large number of "A's" and only one failure. David Sperry, Harold Schuldt, Valeria Seifen and Marie Esser have been on the honor roll at times throughout the past three years. Arthur Grensky is the only possessor of a superior notice, which he received in Spanish I.

Marie Esser played one of the leading parts in the Junior Class Play, and Lee Fenton took part in the Boys' Club Minstrel. Mary Jane Gage was on the Auroran Staff and was also president of Junior Delphi and secretary-treasurer of the Girls' Commercial Club.

Under the guidance of Lee Fenton, our section basketball team ranked third in the junior division of the intra-mural contest. In the major athletics we were represented by John Gerber, Ronald Reiland, and Bob Finley—the latter having received his numerals in football this season. We were also very proud to have had Virginia Frenier on the girls' tennis team.

Musically we are represented in the band by Ray Schwartz and Glen Travis, and in the orchestra by Leona Gotsch.—MARIE ESSER.

Section D, Mr. Davis

At least twelve members of our section deserve mention. Charleen Dauwalder is at present the representative to the Girls' Club while her sister, Evelyn, is the Student Council representative. John Bursh serves as president of the Flying Squadron besides holding a reporter's position on the Auroran Staff. Royce Book is our Boys' Club representative and we are all proud of our section president, Lennis Mitchell, who also holds the position of vice-president of the Flying Squadron. Josephine Ochsenschlager is the secretary-treasurer of the Girl Reserves in which she is an active member. Harriet Palmer is vice-president of the Archery Club and also shows marked artistic ability. None can compare with Roy Connor in handling the brush. The school is very proud to have in its possession a picture, drawn by Roy, of President Roosevelt, which the President has autographed and returned to the school. Great things are expected of Roy in the future.

Arthur Moore holds quite a difficult position as chairman of the Publicity Committee of the Junior Class.

John Miller and Richard Clayton both possess second string football berths. Last semester Miller was our Student Council member while Clayton played faithfully in the band.—SECTION REPORTER.

Section D, Mr. Blackman

As we peer into the archives of Mr. Blackman's section, we gather the following information:

In the line of athletics our section was represented in football by those wee lads: Andy Sabados, Ed Phillips, and Russell Patterson, all of whom won awards. Andy Sabados was chosen on both the all-conference and all-state team, and was elected captain of the "34" team. In track we were represented by Sabados and Patterson. Our section basketball team, led by Donald Lange, had a very successful season, having won the Senior Division. Our section was by no means dormant in dramatics, for three people were thereby sent to school-wide fame. In "Honor Bright", the Junior Class play, Mary Whiteis, Alice Larson and Bob Miller played leading parts. Mr. Blackman and Andy Sabados took part in the Minstrel Show.

Entertainment was provided thru weekly social meetings with Mr. Carlson's section. Within the confines of our section we also have the president and vice-president of the Boys' Club, Bob Miller and Andy Sabados respectively. We also have the school's three cheerleaders, Merlin Marks, Lorengo Mareck, and Frank McKinney. As to scholastic attainments, we have on the honor roll Barron Knechtel and Harold Weingartner on the high honor roll.—HAROLD WEINGARTNER.

Third Row—R. Cook, Bursh, Mitchell, Coil, Brooks, Connor, Cartright, Davis, Miller, Clayton, Caplan, Nelson.

Second Row—Bowers, Dick, Cobb, Morey, Chase, Crossman, Molitor, Sadler, Sabo, Setz, O'Malley, Palmer.

Third Row—Schramer, Morsch, Kobor, Marek, LeRette, Linden, Yaeger, Patterson, Richards, Kroh, Williams.

Second Row—Matyas, McKinney, Wooldridge, Parcell, Wise, Mautray, Rowoldt, Lange, Miller, Weingartner.

Section D, Mr. Carlson

Our section seems to be musically inclined, for eight people were members of the band. They were Dorothy Malette, Robert Handell, Robert Richardson, Dick Hippe, Lindsay Kelley, Ralph Keck, Nathanael Hill, and Don Underwood.

Three of our students, Dick Hippe, Lindsay Kelley, and Charles Hines, were in the Junior Class Play.

We are very proud to have in our section Nathanael Hill, who has been on the high honor roll for five semesters, and Robert Richardson, who at one time attained that goal. Gertrude Hauser, Gertrude Rottsolk, Elizabeth Olinger, and Robert Handell have been on the honor roll at various times.

Four people from our section were members of Delphi. They were: Robert Richardson, Margaretha Hudiska, Gertrude Rottsolk, and Dorothy Hochsprung. Nathanael Hill and Robert Richardson were also on the debate squad. Robert Richardson represented our section on the Auroran Staff as editor of The Bowl of Applesauce. In athletics we were represented by Joe Vaghy, who played regularly on the heavy weight football team, receiving his letter. In 1932-33 we won the basketball Intramural Tournament in the Junior Division.—Dorothy Hochsprung.

Section D, Miss Jenks

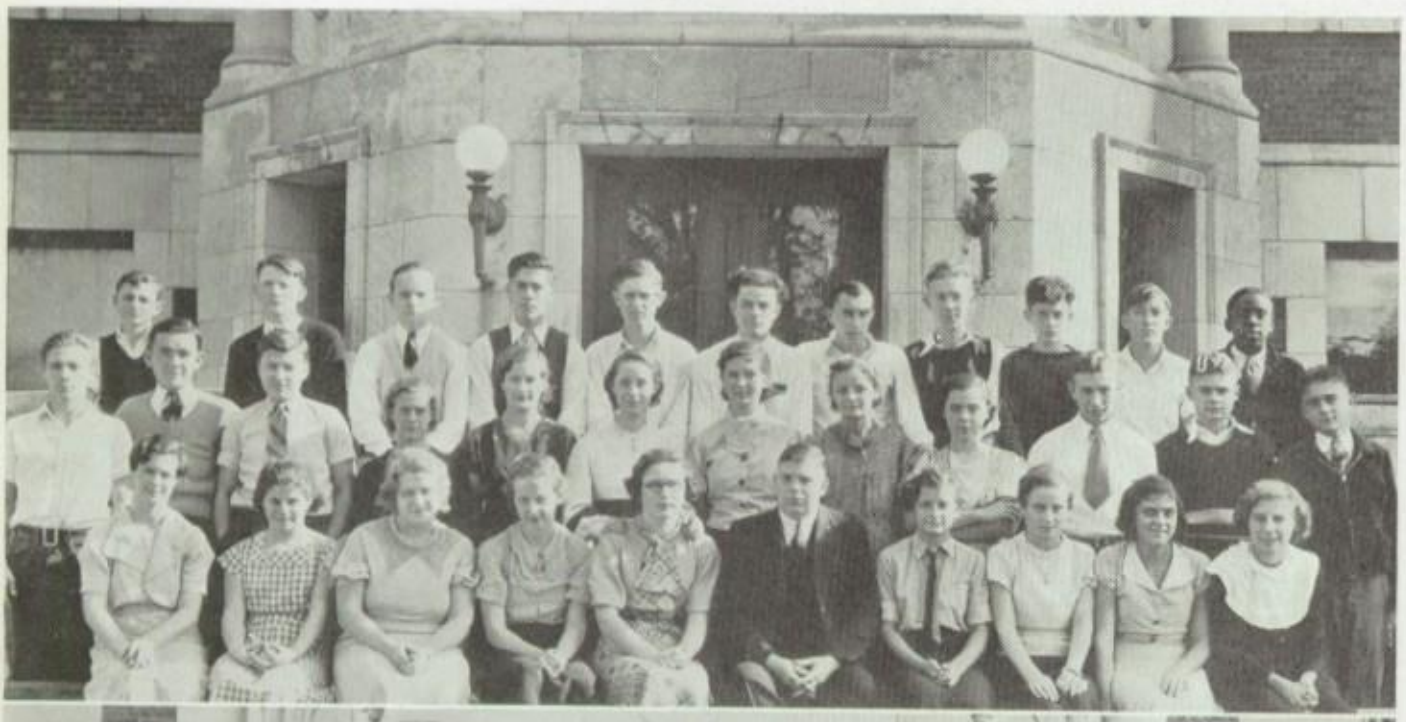
The most courteous section in East High, (witness the courtesy shield we have retained for two years), is being "drug up" by Miss Jenks in a very able manner.

The names of Hortense Rodgers, Catherine Miller and David Miller have appeared on the high honor roll, and Bernice Bogdan, George Smith, and Catherine and David Miller have been on the honor roll. Edna Andresen and Catherine Miller have superior notices in Spanish and Algebra, respectively.

Bette Balskey and David Miller received credit for work in the Junior Class play. George Blake and Martin Bonesteel belong to Hi-Y; and Martin and Merdella Benter participated in Junior Delphi, Merdella being secretary.

We are not lacking in athletic ability, for Ralph Bailey received a letter in football and other boys earned their numerals. Track and intra-mural sports are very popular. Our section won the volleyball championship last year.

Last year we tried the interesting experiment of exchanging pupils with Mr. Davis' section. Half of the students from each section were shifted around for a week, enabling the members of each section to become better acquainted with their classmates. It was voted a success almost unanimously, and we hope to try it again.—Lucille Battenschlag.



SECTION D, MR. CARLSON

Second Row—Heidelberg, Wagener, Underwood, Hochsprung, Hodock, Olinger, Hansen, Richardson, Hudiska, Hines, G. Kish, N. Kish.

Back Row—Pyle, Schindel, Sabo, Bonesteel, Stone, Bellmor, Schmidt, R. Aigner, Bailey, D. Miller, Bornemann.

Second Row—Blyth, Bode, C. Miller, Bieber, Bieri, Rodgers, Borse, Battenschlag, Balskey, Andresen, Blake, O. Aigner.

Front Row—Byrne, Allard, Barbura, Abel, P. Warren, Miss Jenks, V. Warren, Beiler, Bergland, Benter, Schiltz.

SECTION E, MISS DOOLEN

Back Row—Diehl, Fey, Engle, Erb, Coleman, Erickson, Deutsch, Bode, Benson, Doering.

Second Row — Dix, Demeter, Druschel, Benson, Balla, Bartlett, Cleaveland, Feher, Edlmann, Conners, Green.

Front Row—Byron, Gawzner, Farley, Boyd, Gruber, Miss Doolen, Dumdie, Battenschlag, Bennett, Chase, Allard.

SECTION E, MISS O'NEIL

Second Row—Stakemiller, Ream, Washington, Steinke, Swanson, A. Thompson, Sauer, G. Thompson, Yocum, Zimmerman.

Section E, Miss Doolen

Although our section does not have much ability in the line of scholarship, we do fairly well in other activities. Our section is exceptionally lucky for there are three people in it who hold some office in East High activities. Clement Coleman is captain of the 1934 track team, Mary Balla is secretary of the Spanish Club, and Pearl Chase holds the office of vice-president in the Girl Reserves.

Clement Coleman received his letter in heavyweight football, and Bill Druschel received his letter in lightweight football. Bill was promoted from his position on the lightweight basketball team to that of guard on the heavyweight first team. Clement is captain of our section basketball team, which has a high standing in the Junior intra-mural contest; George Bode is the manager. Some of the girls also take part in sports and many belong to the G. A. A.

Marguerite Gast has taken an active part in the Dramatic Club and took a part in the Christmas play.

Naturally we hold membership in the different clubs such as the Spanish Club, French Club, Flying Squadron, and Girls' Commercial Club. In the future we hope to improve along the scholastic line and to maintain our athletic ability.—Mary Balla.

Section E, Miss O'Neil

Under the competent guidance of Miss O'Neil, our section has greatly progressed this semester. There has beeen one superior notice obtained by the hard work of Marion Weber. As yet none of the familiar pink slips decorate our bulletin board, and let us hope they continue to pass us by. We have had one person on the high honor roll, Marion Weber, with a straight "A" record, and expect to have more next semester.

The clubs in school are well supported by people of this section. There are three girls and three boys in the glee club; four "A" students in the band—Ned Stakemiller, George Weichsel, James Yocum, and Stanley Powers. Quite a few students represent us in the Flying Squadron. William Schwingel and Merry Jane Thomson made the try-outs for the debate teams. The Girls' Athletic Association members are Doris Shroeder and Marion Weber. The Girls' Club cabinet representative is Lucille Vickroy and the alternate, Marion Weber. The Boys' C ub representative is Jake Zimmerman, with Arvid Witt as the alternate. The Student Council representative is Merry Jane Thomson and the alternate, Doris Schroeder.

In the intramural basketball tournament our team has been near the top with six games won, and only two lost.—Merry Jane Thomson.

Section E, Miss Ricker

Whiz! Zip! Bang! A blizzard blew through the portals of East High! A part of this hurricane was turned over to Miss Ricker for supervision. At first she had quite a time until some of the frisky flakes spent their energy upon athletics. This seemed worth while because Frank Marshall, Ray Kyes, Charles Pyle, and George Schindlbeck received awards. One of our scintillating crystals, Catherine Kingsley, entertained the whole school by dancing in the Roughneck Day Stunt and in the Variety Show.

Out of this blizzard a few in our section became leaders, such as Betty Harding, the president of Girl Reserve organization and Dorothy Keck, vice-president of the Girls' Club.

Some of us have expressed ourselves musically, for Frank Marshall, Ralph Lowe, Milton LaDew and Ralph Keck are in the band and Margaret Kish is in the orchestra.

In a short time this blizzard became organized and elected Ralph Lowe as its president, Frank Marshall as vice-president, and Dorothy Knapp as secretary-treasurer. They have recently turned their duties over to Genevieve Miller, Milton La Dew and Ray Kyes, who will direct the activities of the section for next semester.

We have not been dormant scholastically, for Emily Kish, Barbara Messinger and Dorothy Keck have been on the high honor roll. They have also been on the honor roll along with Ethel Pauly, Genevieve Miller, Margaret Kish and Dorothy Knapp.

The sad part is that some of these snowflakes have melted and vanished.—Dorothy Keck.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

Just three years ago in 1931, 330 bewildered, timid freshmen wandered thru the corridors of their dear Alma Mater, East High. New ordeals and hardships of the first two years have been overcome and the tasks of the sophisticated Juniors have begun.

To carry on the duties of the class, excellent leadership was needed. Bob Reuss was chosen to lead the class as president. Those to aid him for the year were vice-president, Jack Schulz and secretary-treasurer, Evelyn Frisk.

The class play, "Honor Bright", by Meredith and Kenyon Nickolson, presented on December 15, proved a great success. Concessions at football and basketball games helped to expand the treasury. Great hopes are held in the minds of the Juniors for issuing their "Speculum" in their Senior year and sponsoring the annual Junior Prom.

Each February three junior girls and three junior boys are chosen as officers of the Girls' and Boys' clubs. Evelyn Frisk was chosen to guide the girls for the coming year. Her assistants were Dorothy Keck, vice-president, and Ruth Morey, secretary-treasurer. The Boys' Club is under the leadership of Bob Miller as president with Andy Sabados and Tom Alderson, vice-president and secretary-treasurer, respectively, as his assistants.

Many boys proved their ability in athletics by earning "A's". Outstanding among the athletes is Andy Sabados who in his freshman year earned an "A" and every year since has done likewise. He has also received the star emblem signifying the earning of "A's" in the three major sports. "Andy," the well known orator, who is captain-elect of the heavyweight football squad, will guide the men on the gridiron during the next season. Other boys who received "A's" in football are Ralph Baily, Everett Engle, Ival Erickson, Don Reiland, Stan Ellertson, Bill Druschel, Norman Renner, Joe Vaghy, and Jerry Verbic. Bob Oehrlein, Andy Sabados, Bill Druschel, and Bob Schmidt earned "A's" in basketball. "A's" for track abilities were awarded to Marion Hopkins, Everett Engle and Andy Sabados.

"The Shamrock Shuffle", the St. Patrick's Day dance, was sponsored on March 17. The slogan, "Surely show-up at the Shamrock Shuffle" attracted many. Orrin Tucker's Tea Room Orchestra furnished the music for the delightful evening.

Debate and Forensics put in their claims to a number of Juniors. The debaters and speakers who won recognition are Joe Suhler, Bob Reuss, Charles Tennant, Thais Hamilton, Nathanael Hill, and Bob Richardson.

Girls in the class of "35" were active in sports; basketball, hockey, archery, baseball, and speedball. While they were not champions in all sports they made favorable showings.

The following girls earned awards in the Girls' Athletic Association: Valeria Seifen, Helen Richardson, Edna Andresen, Leona Covert, Miriam Nelson, Dorothy Numerich, Harriet Palmer and Evelyn Frisk.

Bob Reuss became Sports Editor of the "Auroran" in his Junior year. Other "third-yearers" who also found places on the Auroran staff were Iris Minot, Evelyn Frisk, John Bursh, Gordon Teichmann, Joe Suhler, Stephen Paydon, and Bob Richardson.

The "35-ers" proved to have a large number of brilliant students, making either the high honor roll with straight "A's" or the honor roll with at least two "A's" and two "B's". Emma Jane Fowler, Nathanael Hill, Sylvia Kish, Jean Stubbs, Robert Reuss, Hortense Rodgers, Jack Schulz, Evelyn Frisk, Marie Esser, Marion Bowers, Cornelia Brown, Dorothy Jean Dreyer, Irene Lange, David Miller, Iris Minot, Stephen Paydon, Harold Schuldt, Valeria Seifen, Joe Suhler, Harold Weingartner, Virginia Cobb, Thais Hamilton, Robert Handell, Catherine Miller, and Bob Richardson, may be classified in this group.

Student Council, in the mid-term, elected two juniors into the offices of president and secretary-treasurer. These offices were filled by Bob Reuss and Evelyn Frisk, respectively. Under this administration, the new plan of a Student Day, the school being run completely by students, was inaugurated and proved a great success.

The history of a class would not be complete if music were to be omitted, and this class has under its wing a number of winners of solo contests. Bob Johnson and Martin Bonesteel proved their talents in winning National honors.

Thru the excellent guidance of the class advisers, the group has accomplished a good share of their duties and has high hopes for the future, when they assume the role of seniors of East High.

Section F, Miss Bredlow

Under Miss Bredlow's guidance we are proud to say that our scholastic average for the quarter was three point zero two seven, and slightly lower for the semester. Betty Darfler contributed three "A's" and one "B" to our average. Alice Abens, Lois Arndt, and Stella Bogdon were on the honor roll.

In the Girls' Club our section was represented by Jean Louise Beverly and Bernice Becker. Ervie Anderson was our Boys' Club representative and Harold Barclay was the alternate. Ralph Ahasic represented our section in Student Council and Jerome Albright was the alternate.

Ralph Ahasic, Robert Boyce, and Ervie Anderson contributed their football ability to the squad. Ervie Anderson is now out for track.

Lois Arndt plays a violin in the orchestra. Jerome Albright and Robert Battenschlag play in the band.

Ethel Andresen, Betty Darfler, and Grace Ahasic were members of the Girls' Athletic Association. The intramural basketball team, led by Robert Battenschlag and Ervie Anderson, was not highly successful.

Emma Banks, Ralph Ahasic, Grace Ahasic and Bernice Becker were members of the Junior Delphi. Jane Bolster, who transferred from a Chicago high school in September, was a member of the Library Round Table.—MARGARET BANK.

Section F, Mr. Cravens

Scholastically we made a fairly good record, although it certainly was nothing about which we could boast. We were very proud of our four superior notices, three having been earned by one individual. We hesitate to speak of the poor notices which decorated our bulletin board, but we hope to establish a more favorable scholastic record in the coming semester.

Ruth Brown presided as president of Junior Delphi and vice-president of the Latin Club.

In addition to executive ability we have musical talent. Sarah Calendo recently sang at North Central College. Representatives of our section in the band are Ralph Coats, Billy Cousland, Albert Bruechner, Eugene Claude, and Earl Brownell. Ruth Couve is quite a tap and toe dancer, having danced in the Auroran Variety Show. Ruth Brown was the accompanist for the Glee Club while Sarah Calendo, Julia Czecz, and Elaine Butke represented the section in the club itself.

Two of the boys played on the heavyweight basketball "B" team while several others were on the football squads. Our section ranked in the upper division in the intramural contest.

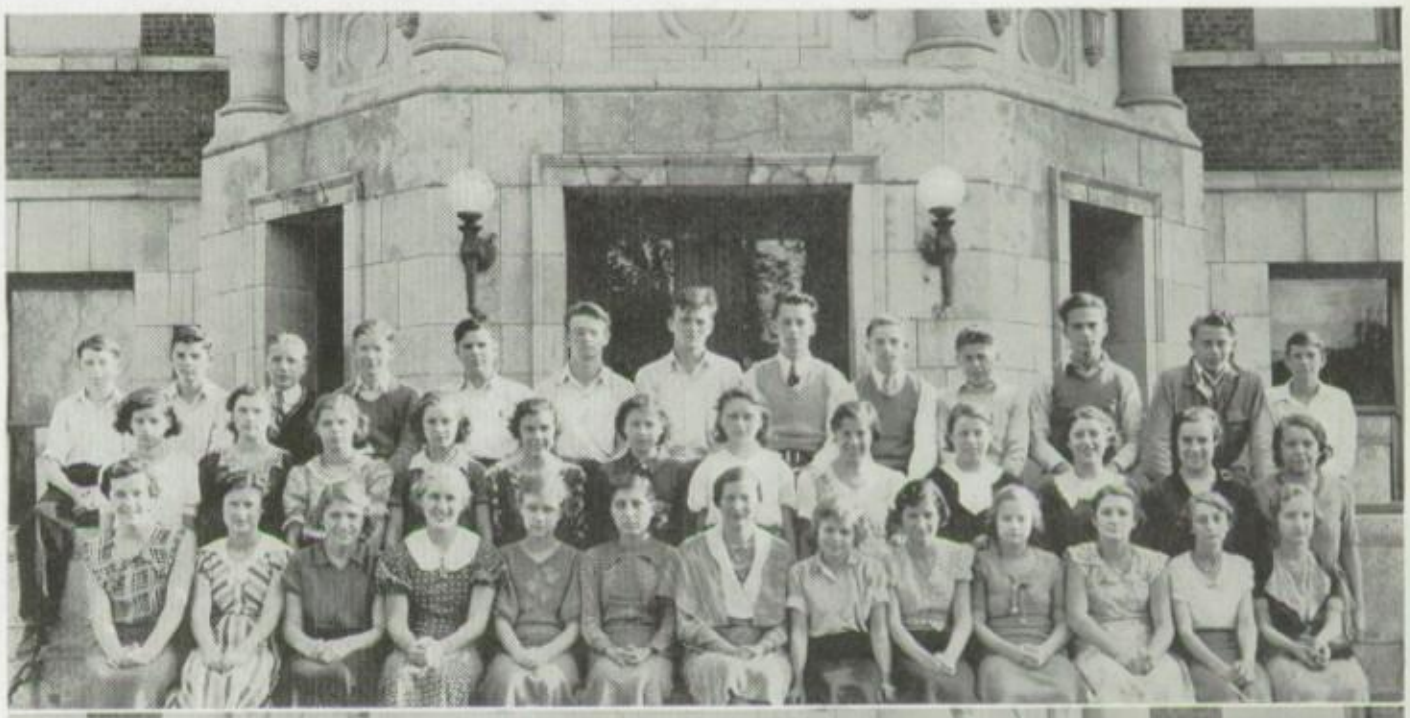
Two people, Billy Cousland and Doris Burkhart, were recognized for their perfect attendance record. —ELAINE BUTKE.

SECTION F, MISS BREDLOW

Back Row—Beiler, A. Assell, R. Ahasic, Darnell, Barnat, C. Boyce, R. Boyce, E. Anderson, Albright, Battenschlag, Baker, Augustine, C. Becker.

Second Row—Marg. Bank, Bobbitt, G. Ahasic, Bendush, Andrews, Dripps, Darfler, Bonnette, Arndt, Best, J. Anderson, Aben.

Front Row—Andresen, M. Banks, E. Banks, B. Becker, Bogdan, M. Bank, Miss Bredlow, F. Assell, Daunheimer, Abel, Bowker, M. Anderson, Bolster.



SECTION F, MR. CRAVENS

Back Row—E. Cumpata, Carter, Coats, Fauth, Erdie, Culhane, Bruechner, Briggs, Brudi, Calkins, Emery, Brengman, Claude.

Second Row—Ernst, Cousland, Seidleman, Crow, Bryan, Coleman, Duesing, Croyle, Coester, Buttles, Clark, Brownell, Breese.

Section F, Mr. Albright

Aaron Albright's sophomore section has not been one of the best as far as scholastic attainments are concerned, but it has had its part in the extra-curricular activities of our school.

During the first semester of the school year Ervin Piron and Donald Rogers were the Student Council representatives. Merwin Philips and Jack Reinhardt were Boys' Club representatives. Wayne Schlentz and Esther Schoeniger were president and vice-president of the section, respectively.

In the second semester Donald Rogers and Elmer Stallman represented our section in the Student Council. Marguerite Schober and Rita Schramer were sent to the Girls' Club as the section's representatives, while Ervin Piron and Jack Reinhardt went to the Boys' Club. Carl Shenk and Wayne Schlentz were elected president and vice-president of the section.

Although Mr. Albright is one of East High's athletic coaches, the only letter man in his section was Ervin Piron, who received a letter in lightweight football. However, our section was represented in the various intramural sports and made a fairly good showing there.

Robert Pierce and Wayne Schlentz are band members, and Marguerite Schober and Irene Reichenbacker play in the orchestra.—Wayne Schlentz.

Section F, Mr. McAfoos

Our section, through Mr. McAfoos' constant effort to raise its scholastic standing and citizenship, ranked highest of all the junior sections. The high honor roll was attained by Donald Haslem, and the honor roll by Wilma Hem, Mary Kish, Emily Kish and Fred Heim. Emily Kish, however, having carried sufficient subjects during the previous semester to make enough extra credits for a half year, was promoted to Miss Ricker's first-half junior section.

During our home room periods, various students gave reports on the qualifications that one should have and cultivate in order to be a success in the future.

Several of our students participate in athletics. Albert Flynn, Edward Hawking and Howard Hill take part in football and track, the former being also a member of the basketball team.

There are a number of other talented students in our section. William Henke, William Harding and Fred Heim are members of the band, while Lambert Hoffman and Donald Haslem are members of the orchestra.

Little is known of the activities of the section in the future; however, it is evident that every individual will be striving to improve his record and become a better student of East High and a well-trained citizen of Aurora.—Mary Kish.

SECTION F, MR. ALBRIGHT

Second Row—S t a l l m a n, Pillatsch, Schindlebeck, Schober, Schmall, Soos, Schoberlein, Rogers, M. Woodard, Rivers, Pierce, Stafford, Reynolds.

SECTION, MR. MC AFOOS

Second Row—King, Harding, Flynn, Jacobs, Holland, Hammond, Faber, Horley, Hartman, Hem, Haslem, Lawrence, Hoffman, Israel.

SECTION F, MISS PITTZ

Second Row—B. Smith, Stilwell, E. Seifrid, Slaughter, R. Seifrid, K. Sutherland, Stine, Searl, Stiles, Geighes.

Front Row—Sickler, Starck, Schuster, Swanson, Tarvid, Miss Pittz, Spang, D. Sutherland, Shoger, Seidelman.

SECTION F, MISS UNDERWOOD

Back Row—Pettit, Paradies, Neuman, J. Moore, Onak, Nickles, Neupert, R. Moore, Mickel, J. Oros.

Second Row—Oberwise, Nicholson, Peckman, Musich, Parker, Parkhurst, Morse, F. Nagy, R. Miller, C. Oros.

Front Row—Mitchell, Gerberich, Oswood, Neil, Gerson, Miss Underwood, Mull, M. Nagy, Patterman, Gast, Mueller, V. Miller.

Section F, Miss Pittz

Last semester's scholastic records were much improved over the previous semester's. Our section, having an average of 3.328, the highest average in the junior division, received the shield. Superior notices were received by Lillian Stallman in Bookkeeping I, and Clarence Streit in Geometry I, while two students, namely, Eileen Starck and Clarence Streit, have exceptional ability in mathematics, Eileen having received a superior notice in Algbra I and Clarence having received one in both Algebra II and Geometry I. Our high honor roll pupil was Eileen Starck. Our honor roll pupils were Shirley Schuster, Harold Staffeldt, Eleanor Stine, and Howard Schulz.

Boys outstanding in athletics were Royal Smith, who was a member of the lightweights in both football and basketball, and Ray Stapleton, who was an active member of the track team, winning several firsts in the dashes.

Howard Schulz, who plays the snare drums, and Ward Thiel, who plays the trombone, represent our section in the band.

Eleanor Stine has been chosen as one of the twenty to represent East High in the National Chorus to be held in Chicago. Most of our section's success is due to the faithful guidance of Miss Pittz, our section officer.—Eleanor Stine.

Section F, Miss Underwood

Miss Underwood's section may be compared to a small community. Most of us are just ordinary citizens, interested in many things but not specializing in any particular one.

However, there are some who are talented along special lines. In the musical field, Betty Ann Miller plays bass viol in the orchestra, and Marian Gast, Emma Morse, Eleanor Mitchell, and Florence Mueller sing in the Girls' Glee Club. Our athletes are John Onak and Clark Oros, who received "A's" in football last fall.

Betty Ann Miller and Robert Miller are both active in Junior Delphi, the former as secretary and the latter as sergeant-at-arms. Florence Mueller, Betty Ann Miller and Arlie Parker uphold high standards in the Girl Reserves. Betty Ann also belongs to the Library Round Table.

Those ambitious scholastically are Ellen Musich, Betty Ann Miller, and Arlie Parker who attained the honor roll the first semester. Alberta Parkhurst, Florence Mueller and Arlie Parker received superior notices.

SECTION G, MR. HUNTER

Back Row—Van Deventer, Wolf, Graf, Goodale, Verbic, W. Tosaw, Timmerman, Waegner, Wethekam, Ziegler.

Third Row—Woodrick, J. Wilkinson, Guest, Zenner, Welcher, Young, Walsh, Troll, Wise, F. Tosaw, Habermeyer.

Second Row—Welsh, Turner, Thompson, Trent, Weigel, Whitney, Wadsworth, Tolias, Weidman, Willemin, Trense.

Front Row—I. Wilkinson, Verbic, Zimmerman, Weber, Thill, Mr. Hunter, J. Walker, Thorpe, Turpen, Williams, Yunkus, Toth.

SECTION F, MISS DORSETT

Back Row—Magill, Mateas, Karsten, Marvin, F. Krantz, H. Krantz, Lehnert, Koster, Folyi, McIntire, Latham.

Second Row—May, Gaddis, Fox, McGowan, H. Meyers, G. Meyers, McCormick, Kroll, Mallette, Lyons, Korthauer.

Section F, Mr. Hunter

Two years ago when we entered high school, we were very timid, but we gradually changed and now we are active in scholastic achievements, athletics, and other minor activities.

During the first semester of this year Martha Yunkus received a superior notice in Spanish II, and Virginia Verbic, Martha Yunkus, and Dorothy Weigel achieved honor roll rating.

Mr. Hunter and Jerry Verbic represented us in the Minstrel Show, and Mr. Hunter, Jeanne Walker, and Jean Willemin appeared in the Auroran Variety Show.

Ralph Zenner belonged to the debate squad; George Troll, the Rifle Club; Jeanne Walker, the Auroran staff; George Troll, the band; and Ralph Zenner and Jeanne Walker, the orchestra.

Junior Delphi was popular with Martha Yunkus, Jeanne Walker, Clifford Young, and Dorothy Weigel. The latter was treasurer.

Jennie Turner possesses much talent as an artist.

Our section intra-mural basketball team took second place. In the major sports we had Lester Woodrick, Bob Welcher, and Herbert Habermeyer in basketball; Ralph Zenner and Clifford Wolf in track; and Herbert Habermeyer, Clifford Young, Jerry Verbic, Bob Welcher, and Clifford Wolf in football.—Dorothy Weigel.

Section F, Miss Dorsett

Our section cannot boast of any "supermen" or Einsteins, but it consists of people who are most willing to cooperate with all of the activities of the school.

The school band would lack something if Elmer Kroll, Melvin Marvin, Orville Mallette, and Elmer Magill were not present, and if our Martha Korody did not sing for Junior Delphi and language programs.

Elmer Kroll has been very fortunate in that he has not missed a day since he started on his high school career.

Melvin Marvin has been our Student Council representative for the entire four semesters in high school.

Ethel Kunde, our Girls' Club representative, and Elmer McIntire, our Boys' Club representative, show much enthusiasm in their work and promise to represent us satisfactorily.

Gretchen Meyer was one of the lucky ones who made the tennis team.

The girls of our section organized a section volley-ball team last spring. This group did very well, for it went to the semi-finals only to be beaten by our friendly rival, Mr. Hunter's section.

Our chief aim is to be loyal to the school and all its organizations.—Gretchen Meyers.

Section G, Miss Shinker

A large group of students with varied abilities compose Miss Shinker's section. Jean Fuller is gifted with a lovely singing voice, and Mary Ann Amell, Marjorie Blake and Marion Hochsprung, belong to the Girls' Glee Club. Anna Hargraves' outstanding artistic ability is admired, and is especially appreciated, because our section has lost another artist, La Verne Boudreau, who is now in California.

We also have in our midst a group of honor students. Kathryn Eisenhuth has attained the high honor roll, and Frank Clare, Leone Gramley, Gladys Foster, and Marion Hochsprung are honor roll students. Superior notices have been earned by three students, Frank Clare, Leone Gramley and Kathryn Eisenhuth.

Bill DeLess received a letter in heavyweight football, and Louie Cyko in lightweight football. Bill also represented our section in Student Council, with Kathryn Eisenhuth as alternate. In Girls' Club, Vurla Adams represented our girls, while Ann Harding acted as alternate.

Sorrow was cast over the students in Miss Shinker's section when our class-mate, Elizabeth Hadfield, died at the home of relatives in Washington, D. C., where she was spending her Christmas holidays.—KATHRYN EISENHUTH.

Section G, Miss Thomas

Our section, composed of forty-three students, is under the direction of Miss Thomas. Sabina Mazurek and Betty Miller received superior notices, and those who attained the honor roll were Carl Licht, Forest Lay, Frances Lake, Sabina Mazurek, and Betty Miller.

We are very well represented in athletics. The members of the section basketball team are: David Hutchinson, manager; Rodney Meyers, captain; Jack Morey, Robert Judd, Clarence Nelson, Donald Landry, and John Kellett. James Miller is on the regular team while Carl Licht and Rodney Meyers are out for track. Dorothy Logue is a member of the G. A. A., and Viola Miller and Betty Kelley were on the girls' tennis team.

Those who are in the band are David Hutchinson, Jack Morey, Carl Licht, Robert Judd, Ralph Johnson, Rodney Meyers, and John Kelley.

Our section officers are Betty Kelley, president; Carl Licht, vice-president, and Betty Miller, secretary. The representative of the Girls' Club is Sabina Mazurek, while Viola Miller acts as alternate. John Kelley is representative of the Boys' Club, with David Hutchinson as alternate; and Jack Morey is representative of the Student Council.

Last term during the sixth period we studied the New Deal.—FRANCES LAKE.

SECTION G, MISS SHINKER

Back Row—Gordon, Carter, Andreasen, Hall, Hepler, Bailey, Carr, Avram, P. Hall, Bonya, Dayton, Burkel.

Second Row—Clare, Fayfar, Desjardines, Barnett, Christian, Fuller, Fuquey, Frazelle, Bauer, Cooper, DeLess, Cyko.

Front Row—Gramley, Harding, Buckner, Hochsprung, Foster, Blake, Miss Shinker, Adams, Hargrave, Amell, Eisenhuth, Geist, Adam, Hadfield.

Back Row—H. Kelley, Hutchinson, Houghtby, Robt. Johnson, Meyers, Moore, Kuk, Minnot, Landry, Judt, J. Miller, R. Johnson.

Second Row—Hippchen, J. Kelley, Licht, Lay, D. Logue, Lake, Kesel, Holdren, Lawson, D. Miller, Nelson, Narr.

Front Row—Mc Nichol, La Rosche, Novi, Negre, Hildabrand, Hopkins, Miss Thomas, H. Logue, B. Kelley, V. Miller, B. Miller, Krasinski, Mazurek.

Section G, Miss Stoddard

Our section, under the able guidance of Miss Stoddard, has not been asleep in the role of a modern Rip Van Winkle. James Smith took the lead in the race for sport honors when he acted as substitute on the heavyweight football team. Joseph Westphall and Leo Smith were only a step behind, both playing on the Freshman football team. Other contestants in the race were Ralph Plummer, Danny Onak, Harry Tesch, William Zolpher, and Harry Rhoades.

The girls monopolized the scholastic honor race, as Peggy Thorpe, Anna Zbroniec, and Jean Presbrey received all "A's" in major subjects. Superior notices were received by Anna Zbroniec and Jean Presbrey in Introduction to Business and Latin II respectively. Very few poor notices found their way to our section.

In Student Council we were represented by Leo Smith and Peggy Thorpe, the first semester, and Joe Westphall and Bob Stoner, the second semester. Karl Paetz and Danny Onak attended Boys' Club Cabinet the first semester with John Popdan and Danny Onak substituting the second semester. Likewise in Girls' Club, Jean Presbrey and Anna Zbroniec held offices at first with Beverly Witteland and Peggy Thorpe substituting later.—JEAN PRESBREY.

Section H, Miss Comiskey

Our section, under the guidance of Miss Comiskey feels that we had a very happy, successful semester together. The only thing that marred our complete pleasure was the fact that our section had to be broken up in order to make room for the incoming freshmen in February. The majority of our class came from the parochial schools and for this reason were not accustomed to the ways of high school as were those who came from Junior High. If this had not been true, we probably would have made even a more successful class.

Our section representatives, Richard Lee, Student Council represntative, Robert Lang, Boys' Club representative, and Betty Kirk, Girls' Club representative, together with various committees, helped to bring our section into one strong body promoting happiness and good fellowship.

Miss Comiskey introduced the idea of having entertainments and projects each week given by the girls and the boys alternately. During the semester successful Thanksgiving and Christmas programs were presented, which delighted all who took part.

We also had a good section basketball team with all the boys showing true sportsmanship.

We are sure that if our section could have stayed together we would have made a still better name for ourselves and for our section.—BETTY KIRK.

SECTION G, MISS STODDARD

Second Row—Onak, Sperry, Plummer, C. Zbinden, Stoner, Rhoades, Westphall, Schossler, Silagi, Riordan, Paetz.

SECTION H, MISS COMISKEY

Back Row—Mason, Kirtzie, Lange, G. Mabrey, Kramp, Mabrey, Mallon, Lee, Lanzen, Long, Kobor.

Second Row—Kroening, Little, Matyas, Maher, Letherman, Martin, V. Lanzen, Linster, Krasinski, Kline.

Front Row—Larson, Kuk, M. Klein, Mathefs, Leach, Kirk, Miss Comiskey, D. Lee, Linder, Klein, Krachon, Matthiew, Maller.

SECTION H, MR. WOOLLEY

Back Row—Hennig, Harter, Hess, Hoovey, Hill, Green, Keck, Jeffers, Hilger, Hiemenz, Harkins, Keierleber, Heidelburg.

Second Row—Keller, Hammond, Hawking, Hauser, Hallett, Johnson, Hilderbrand, Harris, Jones, Greene, Hard, Halmagyi, Henning.

Front Row—Horley, Junas, Kelly, Hayes, High, Hoffman, Mr. Woolley, Henrikson, Johnston, Humphries, Hallgren, Happes, Homerding.

SECTION H, MISS TWITCHELL

Back Row—Sauer, C. Pietkiewicz, Prindle, G. Phillips, Paxton, Rasich, Reinert, Petersohn, Rokop, D. Pietkiewicz, Plautz, Price, Quantack.

Second Row—Roney, Riley, Sachen, Peterson, Rippa, D. Popp, Ruten, Plese, Sajeske, G. Popp, Ratz.

Front Row—E. Precup, Pierce, J. Phillips, Rahn, Rivers, Ready, Miss Twitchell, Reed, Reckard, Sabo, Philipchuck, J. Precup, Richardson.

Section H, Mr. Woolley

At the Freshman party last fall our section, Mr. Woolley's, was very well represented. Robert Halter was one of the boys who showed his ability as a boxer. Earl Heidelburg and William Green played in the freshman band. June Henrikson, Burnell Greene, Lucille Hayes, and Betty Johnston were among the dancers. Last but not least was LeRoy Hammond, who played in the harmonica band.

Our section also has scholastic ability as well as talent. For the first quarter our average was 2.712 and for the second quarter it was 2.865. This improvement of .153 was the best in the school, and won for our section the shield awarded for this honor.

On our intra-mural basketball team Richard Hennig was captain and William Green, the manager. Clyde Hill, Herman Halter, and Robert Hawking were also out for this sport. The basketball team held two practices, one at Young school by itself, and the other with Miss Garwood's section at Brady school.

For the first semester the various representatives for our section were: Richard Hennig, Boys' Club; June Henrikson, Girls' Club; and Helen Homerding, Student Council. The second semester these offices were held by Richard Hennig, Betty Johnston, and William Green.—William Green.

Section H, Miss Twitchell

Our section, as well as other Freshman sections, has done well this year. In September forty promising students were enrolled in our group, eager to make a good scholastic record. As in all other Freshman classes, some have received grades that were not very good. But, in comparison with them, we have a good average. Three of our girls, Julia Precup, Esther Hahn and Henrietta Rivers, have their names on the honor roll. The boys as a group made a better average than the girls.

We are justly proud of Francis Rokop, who made his mark in football. He was a member of the lightweight football team. We have a good basketball team under the management of Daniel Pietkiewicz. His brother, Chester, is the captain of the team. Last semester Carl Plautz was the captain and Chester Pietkiewicz was the manager.

Several girls of our section have shown an interest in becoming members of G. A. A.

Many of our parents attended the Freshman party which was held early in the first semester, and enjoyed meeting our teachers. Our section is well represented in all activities of the school this year.

Our section being a freshman section has not distinguished itself as yet but in the coming semesters we feel sure of greater success.—Julia Precup.

SECTION H, MISS ANDERSON

Back Row—Fauth, Edwards, Dolan, Fey, Gramley, Eisenreich, Frazier, Eckert, Frazelle, H. Dumdie, Doane, Fezekas, Fenton, E. Dumdie.

Second Row—Gieck, Frieders, Federspiel, Gasner, Erd, Galles, Francisco, E. Dumdie, Druschel, George, Draudt, Garbe.

Front Row—Fuchs, Fredrich, Fidis, Frausto, Dabran, Fatten, Miss Anderson, Gray, Foltas, Frunzar, Fage, Erb, Gieghes.

SECTION H, MISS GLEASON

Back Row—Schwerer, Adolf Schmidt, Seidelmann, Suhler, Arthur Schmidt, Soliday, Bill Smith, F. Smith, A. Smith, Shannon, Solfisburg, L. Schmidt, Schoenfielder, Stone.

Second Row—Stuart, Stewart, Schuster, L. Schaefer, Steil, Beatrice Smith, Schreiner, Stoffel, Sehring, Stephenson, Stegmann, Sutcliff, W. Scott.

Front Row—Schiltz, Schomer, M. Schaefer, Seeth, Spang, Miss Gleason, Schrader, Schroeder, Silagi, S. Scott, Stevens, Sturm, Sipos.

Section H, Miss Anderson

Although none of us have attained any startling records, Miss Anderson's section has managed to hold its own. Wilbur Gramley seems to have upheld scholastic honors with an average of four and five tenths for the first semester.

One of the principal social events of the year was the Freshman party, which took place at the beginning of the first semester. This was the first party of its kind ever held at East High and it was given for the purpose of getting parents and faculty better acquainted. Betty Lou Erb took part in the Girls' Chorus which gave several selections. Lillian Gasner and Wilbur Garbe played in the Harmonica Quartet. Carmen Fidis played the violin in the orchestra.

Although a newcomer to our section, the girls elected Lorraine Larson for Girls' Club representative for the second semester.

Eugene Eckert proudly wears a red and black "A" on his red sweater. He was awarded the letter in lightweight football. The section basketball team, consisting of Frank Druschel, captain, John Dolan, Francis Fauth, Charles Frazier, and Wilbur Gramley played some very interesting games on Saturdays. With the success that we have had, we may look to the next three years for even greater accomplishments.—Wilbur Gramley, Betty Lou Erb.

Section H, Miss Gleason

Since high school started last September, our Freshman section has been very active in the school's athletic program, but we have several members who have proved their worth scholastically as well.

Fred Suhler made the high honor roll and Otto Seidelman and Elizabeth Schomer made the honor roll.

Bill Smith was the president of our section; Dorothy Stephenson, the vice-president; and Richard Shannon, the secretary-trasurer.

Our Student Council, Boys' Club, and Girls' Club representatives were Fred Suhler, Walter Scott, and Hildegard Schaedler. During the second semester these positions were occupied by Walter Scott, Harlan Stone, and Hildegard Schaedler, respectively.

Last fall when the call came for football players, Virgil Sutcliff, Arthur Schmidt, Adolph Schmidt, and Francis Smith tried out for the freshman team; Walter Scott, the lightweights; and Bill Solfisburg, the heavyweight squad.

Intra-mural players were Arthur Schmidt, Bill Smith, Adolph Schmidt, Virgil Sutcliff, Bob Stuart, Fred Suhler, Richard Shannon, and Bob Schuster, who made good showings for the section.

We were represented in the band by Richard Shannon and Harlan Stone.—Fred Suhler.

Section H, Mr. Miller

Every Freshman section is the same! We enter our new section with hopes of making the school proud of us. We are fortunate in possessing a little of every kind of talent. Two of our members represent the section on the honor rolls. Joyce Winans was on the high honor roll, having received all "A's", while Walter Truemper made the honor roll with 3 "A's" and a "B." Superior notices were received by Joyce Winans and Walter Truemper in English I and German I, respectively.

Those musically inclined are Aurel Wormwood, who is a member of the orchestra, and Charles Wade and Neil Walsh, who play in the band.

Charles Wade also played on the heavyweight football team and received a numeral this fall. We were unfortunate in losing all but one game in the intramural basketball games.

The girls who recently joined G. A. A. are Thelma Toombs, Harriet Witt, Aurel Wormwood, and Joyce Winans. Neil Walsh is the only section member in the Junior Delphi.

Our Girls' Club representative is Dorothy Weber; Ralph Swanson is the Boys' Club representative, and Garnet Mabrey, Student Council.

We owe a lot to Mr. Miller's excellent supervision for he is never too busy to help us.—Joyce Winans.

Section H, Miss Garms

Our section is composed of freshmen who entered East High School in September, 1933. We organized quickly under the fine leadership of Miss Garms.

There are four boys who play in the band. They are Howard Canham, Dick Crane, Robert Brethauer, and George Brewer. We were not represented so well in athletics, but our intra-mural basketball team did make third place.

We also elected officers in our section. They are: Howard Canham, president; Robert Critton, vice-president; and Margaret Buckley, secretary-treasurer. Like all organizations we had programs. They were held during the sixth period and proved to be interesting because of the various forms of entertainment presented by our different pupils. Fine talent was shown in tap dancing, readings, instrumental selections, and group singing. One of our enjoyable features was the inviting of Miss Garwood and her section to join us in singing. We have taken up parliamentary drill and have also had some interesting discussions on current events.

On the night of the Freshmen party which was held for parents and pupils, we won the five dollars for having the largest percent of parents and pupils present. We used the money to buy a map of the world for our section.—Robert Critton.

SECTION H, MR. MILLER

Second Row—Timok, Weber, Wilmes, Wormwood, Vockrodt, Wise, Youngen, Thom, Tesch, Toombs, Trippon, Weigel.

Back Row—Mason, Graig, Brewer, Cassedy, R. Boyd, Crawford, Claude, Brouhle, Canham, Crane, Des Jardin, Bretthauer, Burrell.

Second Row—Burscheid, Didier, Kirtzic, Crowel, Bryant, Buckley, L. Boyd, Claus, Boyer, Kramp, Clark.

Section H, Mr. Runninger

We had a very interesting semester under Mr. Runninger's guidance. At the end of the first quarter our scholastic average was 3.083, which is a little higher than a "C". We were quite proud of this average, for it was high for a freshman section. Although we did drop to 2.986, almost "C", at the end of the semester, several more earned a position on the honor rolls. On the high honor roll were Avis Murley, Virginia McCance, and Marion McCullough. Walter Numerich and Janet McKay attained the honor roll. Even though quite a number of students in our section received poor notices, we are not in the least discouraged, for most of them are to be redeemed in the near future.

We have some musical talent in our section. Several boys are in the band. Robert Nix and Robert McElroy both play bassoons, Willis Milar plays the clarinet, and Gregory Molitor, the trombone. These boys represented our section in the National Band Contest in Des Moines, Iowa.

Our section is not lacking in athletic ability. Five boys went out for football. They are: Robert McElroy, Lawrence Murphy, Harold Morey, Donald Pagel, and Harvey Moore. None of these boys did exceptionally well but perhaps more will be heard about them in the following years.—Virginia McCance.

Section H, Miss Garwood

Our Freshman section is quite active in school events. Its members are found in the band, the school orchestra, Junior Delphi, the Debate squad and the language clubs. Under Miss Garwood's guidance we raised our scholastic average from 3.112 for a high final rating. Two of our members, Betty Biggs and Robert Amundsen, were on the high honor roll while four others, Mary Atwood, Dorothea Andersen, Betty Kirk and Max Augustine achieved the distinction of being on the honor roll.

Thomas Boger and Paul Blanchard play regularly in the band and Leo Blakinger and Paul are members of the orchestra. The girls seem to enjoy glee work more so than the boys for Elizabeth Anderson, Betty Biggs and Marion Klein are in the Girls' Glee while only Leo Blakinger represents the boys in the Boys' Glee. However we are proud to have such an accomplished vocalist as Max Augustine in our section.

Robert Amundsen is a member of this year's Debate squad. He also belongs to Junior Delphi along with Betty Biggs.

Many of the girls of our section are active participants in Girl Reserve affairs and G. A. A. activities, and several boys take parts in major sports.—Robert Amundsen.

SECTION H, MR. RUNNINGER

Back Row—Pauls, May, Minott, D. Miller, Mylius, Numerich, Moore, Narr, McBrearty, J. Miller, McElroy, Nash, Murphy.

Second Row—Mesaros, G. Oros, McGinn, Murley, McNichol, McCance, McKay, McCullough, Molitor, Milar, Nix, Pagel.

Front Row—Paul, Marj. Miller, M. Miller, A. Miller, Mitchell, E. Oros, Mr. Runninger, Parlow, H. Miller, Morrissette, Parcell, Meyer, Moss, Olar.

SECTION H, MISS GARWOOD

Back Row—Boger, Amundsen, Backert, Almasi, Blakinger, Arlen, Bauer, Augustine, Barber, Bennett, Albright, Aister, Bailey.

Second Row—Behrens, Bolly, Andersen, Anderson, Atwood, Bieschke, Kranchon, Armbrust, Boudreau, Aigner, Blatner.

Front Row—Benuchis, Abel, Baumann, Blythe, Blanford, Miss Garwood, Kirk, Klein, Biggs, Barbel, Albright.

SECTION H, MISS BREDLOW

Second Row—Frazelle, Dabble, H. Dumdie, Hills, Hise, Joray, Hilger, Kleinfieldt, Kittoe, Fatten, Klein, Council, Coats.

SECTION H, MISS GARBE

Back Row—Vaughn, Scholz, Touvell, Tomse, G. Popp, Schroeder, A. Smith, Taylor, Simon, Warren, Pool, Schuster, VanAuken.

Second Row—Ream, Rediske, Ten Eyck, Seidelman, Ziegler, Stredde, Plummer, Szatyari, Schultz, Quilhot, Riley, Weishen, Seraphin, Urak.

Front Row—Weeks, Woodard, Ricker, Vawter, Richardson, Platz, Miss Garbe, Skyles, Young, Udstad, Sierke, Shepard.

Section H, Miss Bredlow

Because our section has just entered high school, its reputation depends upon its future. Among us are several musicians. Charles Coats is an excellent accordian player, and Frank Cumpata has the art of entertaining audiences with his harmonica and guitar. Members of the East High band and orchestra are Virginia Keck, Raymond Curry, Manly Dibble, Robert Grumhaus, Leslie Hanson and Robert Harmon.

The executive ability of a portion of our section is noticeable and undoubtedly will manifest itself in the near future. Robert Harmon is our Student Council representative, and Margaret Hulbert is the alternate. Carol Dunger represents us in Girls' Club, with Gwenivere Horton as alternate. The Boys' Club is represented by Warren Edwards and Robert Harmon.

The achievements of members of our section while at Junior High were noteworthy. Gwenivere Horton was honored by receipt of the American Legion School Award. We should achieve a high scholastic average in East High, judging from the Junior High records. Students who received at least three "A's" in major subjects were Rayfield Edwards. Gwenivere Horton, Margaret Hulbert, Robert Harmon and Carol Dunger. — MARGARET HULBERT.

Section H, Miss Garbe

Our Freshman section under Miss Garbe's excellent leadership, has had no time to accomplish outstanding events at East High as yet, although we all plan to do so in the very near future. At Junior High many of our section were outstanding such as Vernon Taylor, who was president of Student Council; and Fred Shrader, Wayne Warren, William Vaughn, Seymore Simon and Sidney Ream, who were members of our Junior High football team.

At high school this semester Wayne Warren represents us in Student Council with Marjorie Schultz as Girls' Club representative, and Fred Schrader in the Boys' Club. Our home room officers are as follows: president, Dick Ten Eycke; vice-president, Wayne Warren; and secretary-treasurer, Marjorie Schultz.

We also possess a great variety of talent. Ethel Szatyari and Virginia Richardson tap dance, Ralph Schuster gives readings, Robert Zeigler and George Stredde play the clarinet, Peggy Young and Laura Platz possess acting ability as well as reading talent, Kenneth Siedelman plays the piccolo and Richard Ten Eycke plays the drums in the band, both representing us at Des Moines.

We all sincerely hope that our section members succeed in High School.—MARJORIE SCHULTZ.

SECTION H, MISS COMISKEY

Back Row—Carlson, Brownell, Brown, Blanchetta, Clemans, Cadwell, Brengle, Beach, Carey, Blanford.

Second Row—M. Buchner, Chawgo, Orland, Besco, Brisbin, Boulding, Brandt, Boger, Boytor.

Front Row—V. Buchner, Applequist, R. Bourelle, Benson, Anderson, Miss Comiskey, Becker, I. Bourelle, Barnett, Bettcher, Bosshard.

SECTION H, MISS GALBRAITH

Back Row—Michels, Matter, Muntz, Lupie, Kraft, Lindenberg, Kodre, Lee, Paulos, Medina.

Second Row—Nicholson, Mihalka, Mitchler, Mack, McCullough, Licht, Mitchell, Peffers, Nash, Lewis, Koulos.

Front Row—Meyers, Moore, LaRette, Lemmer, O'Meara, Miss Galbraith, Kott, F. Myers, J. Myers, Lowry, Lavoy, Pfieffer.

Section H, Miss Comiskey

Inasmuch as ours is a Freshman section we have no high school history. We have high hopes for the future, however, and under Miss Comiskey's guidance we hope to establish our section as one of the best in the school. All of us are going to take a new lease on life and try to attain the high honor roll. At least we hope to keep those pink slips away from our bulletin board.

We have numerous musicians in our section; Rollin Carey plays the accordion, Normajean Bettcher is an excellent singer, Virginia Buckner, Betty Benson, Jeanne Boger and Jane Chawgo all excel on the piano.

We also have some talented actors in Glen Ackley, Jeanne Anderson, Ann Boytor, Jeanne Boger, Irene Bourelle and Evelyn Carlson. Glen Ackley and Donald Buhrmann have each won letters in football.

Our representatives in school organizations are: Betty Benson on Student Council, Jeanne Boger on Girls' Club with Lorraine Bean as alternate. Glen Ackley and James Cadwell are the representatives for the Boys' Club.

From this review of the possiblities of our section we believe that we can readily attain our desired goal of being an outstanding section in East High. —James Cadwell.

Section H, Miss Galbraith

Our section, being a first-half Freshman group, has no history, yet. But we can mention some people we expect big things of in the future. Joe Kodre received the American Legion Medal for being the outstanding boy in Junior High. He was judged on Courage, Honor, Leadership, Scholarship, and Service. Joe is our student council representative, too. Alex Mihalka is his capable alternate.

As Boys' and Girls' Club representatives we have Junior Perkins and Jean Lowry, respectively. Albert Lee, another fine fellow, replaces Junior when he is absent, and Helen Peffers substitutes for Jean.

Our section officers are: Albert Lee, president; Jane Meyers, vice-president; and Robert Matters, secretary-treasurer. We also have a scholarship committee composed of Winifred Licht, Joe Kodre, and Philip Lewis. They take care of poor and superior notices. All of these are capable and willing to work.

We have three band boys among us. They are Robert Mitchler, Robert Muntz, and Philip Lewis. Junior Perkins is out for almost every athletic team. He is our only outstanding athlete. Of course we have many students in the language or commercial clubs, but as yet we have no outstanding individuals in any of these organizations.—Philip Lewis.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

Back Row—Richards, Reuss, Meyer, Gleason, Hearn, Connors, Fauth, Smith, Marvin, Miller.

Third Row—Shulz, Wade, H. Shulz, Jakious, DeLess, Kyes, Solfisburg, Oester, Perry.

Second Row—Staib, Coats, Lassier, Suhler, Amundsen, Paxton, Lee, Ahasic, Hamilton.

The Student Council

The Student Council was organized at East High for the purpose of aiding the faculty by assuming certain phases of the adminstration of the school government. The body is composed of a representative of each section in school, the presidents of the junior and senior classes, the editor and manager of the "Speculum," the editor of the "Auroran", the captains of major sports, the president of the athletic association, the president of Delphi, and the presidents of the Boys' and Girls' Clubs.

This year, Manley Perry guided the council the first semester aided by Connie Clare, vice-president and Virginia Reavell, secretary-treasurer. Bob Reuss was president the second semester, Jules Barnat, vice-president, and Evelyn Frisk, secretary-treasurer.

The council, with the aid of the Kiwanis Club, presented several special assemblies featuring speakers, adventurers, and artists. The Metropolitan Concert Company, Zellner, the dramatist, Dr. Chas. E. Barker, former personal physician to President Taft, "Jim" Wilson, African adventurer, and "Fritz" Crisler, head football and basketball coach at Princeton University, appeared during the year.

All pep meetings and open houses were directed by Student Council. Bob DeWolf was chairman of the pep meeting committee and Bob Oester and Bob Miller had charge of open house. The council also took charge of the traffic system, relieving crowded conditions in the corridors.

In October, Student Council took part in a magazine selling contest which netted approximately $320 for the Council, the Band, and the Boys' and Girls' clubs. The traditional Freshman initiation and Roughneck Day were other activities sponsored by the organization.

On March 23, a "student day" was held, with the students taking over the entire administration of the school. The idea, originated by Burton Burkhardt, Manley Perry and Bob Reuss, was passed by Student Council and Manley Perry was elected principal of the school for the day. The Girls' Club elected Betty Trimble dean of girls, and Clement Coleman was chosen dean of boys by the Boys' Club.

An "Honesty Week" campaign to promote honesty in all aspects of school life was undertaken by the council. The committee in charge of this included Connie Clare, Charles Wade, Robert Amundsen, Lois Hodock, and Al Flynn.

A point system for the regulation of extra-curricular activities was drawn up by a committee consisting of Robert Hesselbaum, chairman, Francis Staib, Clement Coleman, and Howard Fauth. It was then presented to the vote of the student body. Another committee headed by Leola Tews worked on a student activities ticket.

The council donated twenty-five dollars for the purpose of sending the band to the Rockford-East High football game and it also paid for damages done to West High the eve of the annual Thanksgiving game.

The Board of Control

The Board of Control is also a representative body which has control of the athletics. It passes on the awards of numerals and letters to all players who have been selected by the coaches. It also names the managers of all athletic teams. The membership of the board consists of the captains and coaches of all athletic teams, the athletic director, the officers of the athletic association, and the principal of East High.

The 1933-34 board was as follows: O. V. Walters, principal; Glen Thompson, coach of the heavyweight football, lightweight basketball and track; Aaron Albright, heavyweight basketball coach; R. E. McAfoos, lightweight football coach; R. E. Davis, athletic director; Howard Fauth, captain of the heavyweight football; Louis Jakious, captain of the lightweight football; Francis Hearn, captain of the heavyweight basketball; Eddie Kaluza, captain of the lightweight basketball; and Clement Coleman, captain of the track team.

The officers for the year were: Oscar Federspiel, president, Jack Connors, vice-president, and Kathryn Lee, secretary-treasurer.

Third Row—Vickroy, Rodgers, Lee, Howard, Backstrom, Plese, Morse, Bogar, Kish, Czez, Govai.

Second Row—Trense, Schuster, Johnston, Butke, Bartlette, Balla, Boyd, Lowry, Wetteland, Schober, Esser.

The Girls' Club

The Girls' Club began working energetically as soon as the first September meeting was called, and fairly raced through the calendar with important events.

Freshman initiation was the first major event on the list of activities to be carried on during the school year. All survived and enjoyed the program presented in the auditorium, and the dancing and refreshments later in the gymnasium.

Several of the Girls' Club members presented a delightful program of dancing, readings and old-time singing for the occupants of the Old Ladies Home on Fifth Street. The same entertainment was offered a little later at Springbrook Sanitarium and was graciously received.

December came. Unfortunate children of the city were royally entertained at the annual Christmas Party given by the Girls' Club, December 23, in the school gymnasium. Each small guest received warm gloves, stockings, caps, toys, games and candy, all made possible by donations to the Aurora Beacon News Empty Stocking Fund.

In April many East High girls attended the annual spring conference of the Chicago and Suburban Girls' Clubs, held at Deerfield-Shields High School in Highland Park, Illinois. Miss Leonard, dean of women at the University of Illinois, was the feature speaker of the day. However, student representatives of various suburban high schools led round-table discussion groups, which dealt with improved club management.

Later in the spring the Girls' Club observed their annual Ivy Day, when shrubbery was planted at each end of the building, outside Mr. Davis' and Mr. Gunderson's rooms.

Another tradition observed by the club this year was Katy Klean Up's annual spring visit to the school for a week. During Katy's stay here the girls held spring house-cleaning.

The club gives aid to those girls who are in need and would not otherwise be able to continue their education. The year of success was due to the able guidance of Miss O'Neil, club adviser and dean of girls, and to Miss Anderson, who acted in Miss O'Neil's absence.

The Girls' Club officers for the year of 1933-1934 were Betty Trimble, president; Connie Clare, vice-president; Margaret Ellis, secretary-treasurer. They were replaced by Evelyn Frisk, Dorothy Keck, and Ruth Morey, respectively, who were initiated at a second freshman party, held February 16.

The following girls represented the sections this semester: Shirley Howard, Irene Backstrom, Anna Marie Cornell, Kathryn Lee, Irene Plese, Bettye Walker, Catherine Govai, Sylvia Kish, Dorothy Bieber, Charleen Dauwalder, Marie Esser, Gertrude Hauser, Jean Leigh, Bernice Allard, Marie Jean Langwill, Lucile Vickroy, Genevieve Casgrove, Elizabeth Jacobs, Ethel Kunde, Emma Morse, Marguerite Schrober, Shirley Schuster, Emma Trense, Maryann Amell, Sabina Mazurek, Beverely Wetteland, Mary Atwood, Lois Boyd, Lorraine Larson, Betty Johnston, Avis Murley, Julia Precup, Hildegard Schaedler, Dorothy Weber, Jeanne Bogar, Carol Dungar, Jean Lowry, Marjorie Schultz.

The alternates were as follows: Florence Couvé, Mildred Kastol, Mariam Rokey, Mary Godfrey, Clara Meyers, Dorothy Leigh, Dorothy Dunn, Kathryn Weber, Hortense Rodger, Josephine Oxie, Mary Jane Gage, Helen Richardson, Irene Lange, Mary Balla, Betty Harding, Marion Weber, Julia Czecz, Virgina Horley, Alice Abens, Florence Mueller, Rita Schramer, Fee Swanson, Helen Tobias, Leone Gramley, Viola Miller, Peggy Thorpe, Betty Kirk, Dorothea Cobb, Carmen Fidis, Lorraine Hochsprung, Agnes Morrissette, Theresa Sabo, Lois Schafer, Joyce Winans, Lorraine Bean, Genevere Horton, Helen Peffers, Ethel Szaryari.

Third Row—McIntire, Kaluza, Ellertson, Habermeyer, Almasi, Alderson, A. Zimmerman, J. Zimmerman, F. Fauth, Cobb, Seifrid, Stone.

Second Row—Battenschlag, Calkins, Swanson, Hill, L. Kelly, Dumdie, J. Popdan, Perkins, Schramer, Doering.

Front Row—Cadwell, Mason, Edwards, Hennig, Bachert, Miller, Mr. Hunter, Sabados, Connors, Hearn, Spring, J. Kelly.

The Boys' Club

The Boys' Club, since its organization in 1932, has been improving steadily as time has passed. The purpose of the club is to develop a closer relationship and a better understanding among the boys of East High School, and to help them to make the proper adjustments to the problems which confront them.

In 1933 Howard Fauth piloted the organization through a very successful year, assisted by Jack Connors as vice-president, and Francis Hearn as secretary-treasurer. In February of 1934 these officers were replaced by Bob Miller, Andy Sabados, and Thomas Alderson, respectively.

Under these leaders the year was one of great success. In October, the school sponsored a magazine contest. The profit of this contest was divided evenly among these clubs; the Student Council, the Girls' Club, the Band, and the Boys' Club.

In January of 1934 the Band and the Boys' Club staged a Minstrel Show, which brought each organization a considerable sum of money, to be used for the furthering of projects of the organizations. The show proved so successful that it was repeated, the proceeds of which were donated to the Fireman's Fund.

One of the most enjoyable parties of the club was held the first Friday in December, at which almost 700 boys were present. After a program in the auditorium, boxing matches were held in the gymnasium and refreshments were served. A party of this kind was repeated on April 6, to the joy of the boys.

The Boys' club room, scene of the meetings of the organization, was made very attractive by curtains and decorations purchased in the spring of the year. A radio and drapes, also bought by the club, added much to the comfort and appearance of the room. However, the Boys' Club does not spend all of its money enhancing the appearance of the club room, for, with the help of the P. T. A., over twenty-five boys in the school have been given financial aid.

The work of the club proper is carried on by a board which consists of a representative from each section of the school. This board elects the chairmen of the three standing committees, namely the social, the program, and the service committees. Each chairman in turn selects a boy from each class to act on his committee. When the boys have met and have decided on the program of the club, this program is brought before the board, and if approved, is carried into effect.

The Boys' Club, along with the dean of boys and adviser of the club, Mr. Hunter, is continually striving to better its activities and to increase its service to the school. If it progresses in the future as it has in the few short years of its existence, it it will surely achieve its goal.

The representatives of the various sections elected by popular vote of their fellow class-mates were as follows:

Der Deutsche Verein

The meetings of the German Club, held every other month, presented an unusual variety of programs both educational and entertaining. Donald Yaeger ably executed the duties of the presidency of the club. The other official positions were held by Harold Weingartner, vice-president, and Ruth Brinkmann, secretary-treasurer, who were able assistants to Don.

It is the belief of the language clubs that a student's interest should not be limited to knowledge of one country. Following this policy, the various other language clubs have attended the majority of the programs as guests of the German Club.

At one meeting several reels of films depicting various German scenes and customs were thoroughly enjoyed by the members of the club and their invited guests, the French Club members. On April 4, Mrs. Mina Malek, the superintendent of Jenning's Seminary, thrilled her audience with her talk of life in Africa where she lived many years as a missionary and traveler.

No one can express well enough how deeply is appreciated the guidance and assistance of the German Club advisers, Miss Garms and Miss Bredlow.

Athenaeum

The Latin Club has had a very successful year with Miss Holaday as adviser, assisted by Miss Gleason. The officers were: Roy Solfisburg, president; Ruth Brown, vice-president; and Betty Kelley, secretary.

During the year, four interesting meetings were held the first Wednesday of every other month. In October, the Latin IV class presented part of the play, "Julius Caesar." Three short plays, "Vestal Virgin," "Polyphemus," and "Judgment of Paris," were given by the two Latin III classes on December sixth. In February, a series of slides on Roman dress and a moving picture called, "Rome, the Eternal City" proved both enjoyable and educational.

The second semester, members of the Latin IV class sponsored, with the help of the other Latin classes, three publications of "Res Latinae." The paper was managed by Raymond Heriand, editor, with Dorothy Weigel and Helen Swanson as his associate editors. This year a number of new and interesting departments were added to those of past years, such as, "The Voice of the Freshmen," "The Home Department," "The Beauty Department," and "The Historical Survey."

El Circulo Espanol

El Circulo Espanol, meeting in the auditorium the first Wednesday of each month, presented excellent educational and entertaining programs. Among many other interesting programs there were presented, a moving picture on the Spanish countries near the Caribbean Sea, a talk by Miss Garms, the head of the Spanish department, on her trip through Mexico, and a few Spanish dances.

The objectives of this club are to acquaint the members with the customs and manners of the Spanish people and to give the students the opportunity of knowing one another better.

Many enjoyable meetings were held in conjunction with the other language clubs and interesting phases of the lives of the French, German and Roman peoples were learned and compared with those of Spain.

An annual picnic is held in the spring of each year and is enjoyed by all who attend.

The officers of the club were all capable people; namely, president, Catherine Govai; vice-president, Albert Setz; and secretary-treasurer, Mary Balla. The four teachers of Spanish, Miss Lilia Garms, Miss Helen Twitchell, Miss Esther Garbe and Mr. George Woolley acted as sponsors.

Le Cercle Francais

This year the French Club has been functioning under the direction of Jack Schulz, president; Betty McLallen, vice-president; and Fee Swanson, secretary-treasurer.

"I think," says Jack, "that perhaps the election was a 'put-up job'." You see, he has just been initiated into the trying experience of arranging programs for the club's entertainment.

Betty McLallen? "Well," says she, "I'm following the old custom of vice-presidents being seen and not heard."

Fee Swanson, as secretary-treasurer of our club has not been overburdened with things to do. Finances have been low, very low, and all meetings have been in the form of entertainments.

This year the club sacrificed the pleasure of a Christmas Party and prepared, instead, a Christmas Basket which was given to an unfortunate family. The members feel that they were amply repaid in personal satisfaction for this deed.

The French Club introduced this year the plan of inviting all of the language clubs to its programs.

Miss Gleason, the adviser, was largely responsible for the activities of the club, and for its interesting programs.

Press Club

The East High Press Club was a great success this year. Only six of last year's members remained to finish '33 and start '34. These six people made a prospective list of new members, which was approved by Mr. Geil, faculty adviser of the club, and on September 27, 1933, the following new members were received into the club:

Wilbur Golz, Marian Burrell, Jane Elfervig, Roberta Abell, Evelyn Cusic, Betty McLallen, Iris Minot, Margaret Ellis, Robert Oester, Robert Richards, Robert Reuss, Landrith Parker, Gordon Teichman, Henry McCance, Joe Suhler, Roy Connor, Ruth Brown, Martha Hargrave (honorary).

Officers of the club were: Virginia Reavell, president; Betty Trimble, vice-president; Robert Hesselbaum, secretary; and Ruth Johnson, who was appointed as chairman of the program committee.

Meetings of the club were held in the library every second and fourth Wednesday of the month.

This year the people of the club took up detailed study of the short story, and as laboratory work several original short stories were written and discussed. Those who wrote short stories were Martha Hargrave, Robert Hesselbaum, Virginia Reavell, Shirlye Frank, Landrith Parker and others.

Senior Delphi

"Madam Chairman, what is this Delphi business?"

Well, the "business" of being a Delphian is one of the most profitable and enjoyable diversions offered among the extra-curricular activities at East High. Regular weekly meetings include some parliamentary drill, amusing speeches, and reports of current events. For the practical rules of parliamentary law, the book "Roberts' Rule of Order" is consulted, and the club members are efficiently trained in conducting business meetings.

The biennial Mock Trial, a comedy featuring an assault and battery case, was one of the most successful activities of the club. Later in the season, the Delphian dance afforded a delightful evening for Delphians and alumni.

The officers of the society for the second semester were: Burton Burkhardt, president; Daisy Cross, vice-president; Peg Ellis, secretary; Alice Larson, treasurer; and sergeant-at-arms, Robert Reuss.

Mr. Hunter, our faculty adviser and critic, has aided in many ways toward the success of the society. Membership is open to Juniors and Seniors who adopt as their motto "Once a Delphian, always a Delphian".

Library Round Table

The Library Round Table was organized about six years ago by a group of students who had just completed the library science course.

The purpose of the club was to keep in direct touch with the library, which the people did by having occasional meetings. At the meetings new books were reviewed and those which had been added to the library were discussed. All students taking the library science course were eligible for membership.

Although the meetings of the club this year have been few, the year has been a successful one. The officers of the year were: Albert Spencer, president; Robert Richards, vice-president; and Mary Elizabeth Godfrey, secretary-treasurer.

At the first meeting our adviser, Miss Allen, gave a very interesting report of the American Library Association Convention, which was held in Chicago. She also told of the splendid book exhibits at the Century of Progress Exposition, and of the value of seeing them.

Last spring a most enjoyable lawn party was held at the home of Orise and Nathaniel Hill. It is hoped that a similar event will be possible this year, as Mrs. Hill has very graciously extended to the club an invitation to come again.

Junior Delphi

Junior Delphi, a club open to all freshmen and sophomores, has been very successful during the past year. This was due not only to the capable officers, but also to the guidance of our faculty adviser, Mr. Blackman, who was ever ready to correct our mistakes and to help us in making our club one of the best in the school.

Officers of the club for the first semester were: Ruth Brown, president; Elinor Stine, vice-president; Doris Schroeder, secretary; Gail Thompson, treasurer; and Robert Miller, sergeant-at-arms. Elinor Stine proved a very capable leader upon the transferring of our president to another school. The second semester Fee Swanson took over the duties of president, with Fred Suhler as vice-president, Betty Anne Miller as secretary, Dorothy Weigel as treasurer and Robert Miller as re-elected sergeant-at-arms.

The meetings, consisting of business sessions and programs, were held every Thursday during the seventh period. The programs of the past semester were both varied and interesting because of the cooperation of the members with the officers. Many of our members look forward to entering Senior Delphi, anticipating a continuance of this enjoyable work.

Hi-Y

Our Hi-Y Club of East High officially closed a most successful year with an inspiring Mother and Son banquet.

Throughout the year of 1933 and 1934 many prominent local men addressed the club on vocational and inspirational subjects. Included in this group were such men as Mr. K. D. Waldo, Dr. Dreyer, Lawyer Keating, Dr. Lindbergh, and Judge Allen.

This East High Club is a member of the National Association of Hi-Y clubs. The purpose of the association is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character.

This year the Aurora Hi-Y clubs, both East and West, entertained the "Big Four" conference which is composed of Joliet, Elgin, West Aurora and East Aurora.

December 1, 2, and 3, the president of the organization was sent to Springfield to represent East High at the State Older Boys' Conference.

The officers for this year were Bob Richards, president; Bill Nunn, vice-president; and Landrith Parker, secretary-treasurer. Our membership totaled 34 including Mr. Geil, faculty adviser and Mr. E. B. Davis, adviser from the Y. M. C. A.

Silver Triangle

During the past year the Silver Triangle has had a very happy and profitable year under the guidance of Miss Dorothy Underwood, adviser. Betty Harding filled the office of president very capably, with the assistance of Pearl Chase and Josephine Ochsenschlager, vice-president and secretary-treasurer, respectively.

We had as our theme the triangle itself, trying to develop the body, mind, and spirit. To accomplish this we had talks from all the branches of life. We held a spring party for the Girl Reserve organizations of the neighboring communities. A Teachers' Tea and a Mothers' Tea were also enjoyed.

Probably one of the most outstanding events of the year was the "Setting-Up Conference", held at Quarryledge, the Girl Reserve camp. We spent a week-end there at which time we received the ideas of other Girl Reserves.

During that time we planned a Girl Reserve paper with Genevieve Miller as editor, assisted by Virginia McGowan, Ethel Pauly, Betty Crowel, and Barbara O'Malley.

The other officers of the club were: Marion Bennett, song leader; Ethel Pauly, reporter; and Dorothy Keck, program chairman.

Science Club

Though a comparatively new organization, the Science Club, under the advisership of Messrs. Stutz and Gunderson, had a very successful year.

Several interesting programs were featured, including a talk on astronomy by Norman C. Golz, class of '30, and one by G. W. Ackerlow.

A movie projector was jointly purchased by the club with money supplied by dues and chemistry-breakage fees, Junior High, and the Parent-Teachers Association, and thus far it has proved valuable in classroom work. By purchasing two films and sending them to a film library at the University of Illinois, many educational pictures were made available for the use of the school.

The purpose of the Science Club is to bring to the students subjects of scientific interest, which otherwise could not be discussed, and to further interest in all fields of science. Only students who have had or are taking chemistry or physics are eligible for membership. The regular meetings of the club are held each first and third Thursday of every school month.

The club elects its officers for the term of one year. This year's officers are Wilbur Golz, president; Everett Schumacher, vice-president; Joe Gleason, secretary-treasurer.

Girls' Commercial Club

In looking over the year of 1934, we find that the Girls' Commercial Club has added one more successful year to its history.

We have been boosters for our club's interests as well as charity doners. At Christmas time we sent a large basket to a needy family.

It has been our aim to get as many girls as possible interested in joining the club, since this enables us to form a stronger bond between the girls and the commercial department.

To help the club financially, we have had charge of the candy concession during the noon hour of the last semester. As the club has no dues, the money earned here has found a ready use.

Many interesting programs were presented during the year consisting of talks, singing, dancing, and plays.

Miss Comiskey has been adviser of the Girls' Commercial Club for five years. This year she was assisted by the following officers: first semester: Eleanor Stoner, president; Violet Schramer, vice-president; Mary Jane Gage, secretary-treasurer; second semester: Margaret Ellis, president; Irene Lange, vice-president; Daisy Cross, secretary- treasurer.

Rifle Club

Although the Rifle Club is a comparatively new organization at East High School, a great deal of interest has been shown in it. New recruits have taken the places left vacant by some of the original members, and next year promises to bring out a great many more "gun-minded" boys.

The club has several purposes: that of training for expert marksmanship, the care of firearms, and competition with the other clubs. Members are taught the need for extreme caution in the use of firearms and that carelessness cannot be tolerated.

Any student under eighteen who is willing to support and practice the Rifleman's Code is eligible to the club.

Several matches have been held with similar clubs. Competition between the East and West Side Rifle Clubs is very keen.

The club meets every Wednesday night at a well-equipped range on River Street. This privilege is granted the club through the courtesy of the Senior Rifle Club, and is greatly appreciated by the boys.

The officers for 1934 were: President, Henry Shannon; vice-president, James Yocum; secretary-treasurer, Nathanael Hill. Mr. Hugh Parker is the club instructor and adviser.

Flying Squadron

Looking back, the members of the Flying Squadron view with satisfaction the school year of 1933-34.

The officers who guided the destinies of the club for the first semester were: Wilbur Golz, president; Lowell Buhrman, vice-president; Lennis Mitchell, secretary; and Joe Gleason, treasurer.

This semester was given over entirely to reorganization and no new members were taken in.

At the first of the next semester, John Bursh was elected president. His aids were Lennis Mitchell, vice-president; Herbert Stallman, secretary; and Richard Thornton, treasurer. New members were solicited and a consultation group was formed. This group met every day in the room of the adviser, Mr. Carlson. It was here that many plans which led to the success of the club were formulated and explained to the club.

In April an identification of types of planes was sponsored by the club and opened to all high school students who were not members of Flying Squadron. About fifty model planes built by the boys were displayed and received much favorable comment. The honors of the contest prove woman's place in aviation for Harriet Palmer won the high score.

Archery Club

The fall of 1933 found the East High Archery Club celebrating its first birthday.

Officers elected for 1933-34 were: Gordon Teichman, president; Harriet Palmer, vice-president; and Miriam Nelson, secretary-treasurer, with Miss French, gym instructor, as our adviser.

Early in 1934 a new idea was proposed by one of the members. "Why not shoot for a prize?" A mug was suggested as the prize, but when the treasurer announced there was at least forty cents in the treasury, it was decided to purchase a loving cup. (A small pewter sugar bowl, which did resemble a loving cup, was finally obtained).

In the winter, the club met every Tuesday during the sixth hour in the attic. At each meeting the person who made the highest score had his name engraved on the cup.

At graduation time the cup was awarded to the person having his name engraved on the cup the greatest number of times. No doubt this trophy will remain a cherished possession of the winner.

When spring rolled around and the weather permitted, the club met at the athletic field for outdoor shooting, thru the kind permission of Mr. Davis, athletic director at East High.

Industrial Club

The Industrial Club is a new organization that has entered into East High activities. It was started in 1933 by Roy Dittman and Bruce Wiley. This year the club was late in getting started but it has progressed rapidly. Its purpose is to acquaint boys with the industries in which they are interested.

All members of the club must be juniors or seniors. The membership is limited to twenty-five boys. Like all organizations of this type, this club has certain officers. They are: Stanley Edwards, president; Minard Utis, vice president; and Dick Williams, secretary. The faculty adviser is Mr. Carlson.

If nothing prevents, the boys should have a much broader knowledge of various industries in the future, because they have many interesting trips planned. The places the club visited are: the C. B. and Q. Coach Shop, the C. B. and Q. Switching Tower, the Elgin Watch Factory, the Independent Tool Company, Miller-Bryant-Pierce, the Stevens Adams Factory, and many other factories in and around Aurora.

Of course, such an interesting club must have rules. If anyone has two unexcused absences, he is automatically dropped because of the waiting list.

Drama

Stagecraft and dramatic interpretation are the two subjects studied in the drama course under the direction of Miss Bredlow.

The third hour class, the beginner's class, is introduced to the fundamentals of the stage. Here the development of the drama is studied from the earliest performances on the hillsides of ancient Greece to the present-day theatres with all their modern equipment and modern plays, realistic and suggestive.

Work in design and makeup is a part of the course in the third hour class; costuming and lighting are also studied. As individual projects miniature stage models are constructed and set for a scene from one of the plays which the student has read.

Each drama student is required to read five one-act plays and five plays of more than one-act every semester. Reference reading from books on the production of plays may be substituted for some plays.

The fourth hour students take the advanced course, which deals with the dramatic interpretations. Included in this course are analyses of the various types of plays, the construction of a play, dramatic criticisms, a study of the movies, pantomime, voice and diction, and participation in choric reading.

The presentation of an original monologue or one-act play is the individual project of this group.

Miss Bredlow trains those who have taken drama for a year or more in directing and making adaptations of plays, as well as staging them. Two from this class, Merrianne Brandt, a post graduate, and Ruth Johnson, assisted her in directing the Auroran Variety Show, and Jean Hannon and John Wells aided with the scenery and the staging of the show.

On of the features of the course in drama is a visit to the Paramount Theater. Here the students inspect the various equipment backstage, climb to the gridiron at the top of the stage, receive a closeup of the perforated screen on which the moving pictures are shown, and visit the dressing rooms where the feeling of being an actual performer is experienced.

Among the plays given by the different classes were "Christmas Eve at Bracebridge Hall," adapted for the stage by Mary Godfrey; "Fourteen" by Alice Guerstenberg; "The China Pig" by Evelyn Emig; a children's play taken from Grimm's fairy tale of "Rumplestiltskin"; and two one-act plays "Neighbors" by Zona Gale and "The Dear Departed" by Stanley Houghton. Several of these were directed by students of the classes.

Parent-Teacher Association

The Parent-Teacher Association of East High School has been truly a "friend in need" this past year. It has willingly contributed to every deserving cause and has aided needy students directly, or indirectly thru some other school organization.

The club met only every other month, but the variety and interest of the meetings partially compensated for the scarcity. Mrs. Sperry very capably executed her duties as president of the organization, and was assisted by Mrs. Schmahl, vice-president, and Miss Gertrude Pittz, secretary-treasurer.

At the October meeting, Mrs. E. G. Thompson, Superintendent of Schools of St. Charles, spoke on a subject of vital interest to all parents and teachers, "The Public School Situation." The several excellent classical selections presented by East High's own orchestra, under the leadership of Miss Pouk, were greatly enjoyed by the appreciative audience.

In keeping with the season, the December meeting featured a most interesting Christmas Play enacted by the drama class under the direction of Miss Bredlow. The play, depicting an old-fashioned Christmas in England, was an adaptation of Washington Irving's "Christmas Eve."

At the February meeting, Mrs A. R. Williams of Normal, Illinois, the first vice-president of the Illinois State Congress of the Parent-Teacher Association, addressed the joint meeting of the East and West councils of the organizations. The West High School orchestra and the East Aurora Mothers' Chorus furnished the musical entertainment. Brief talks on the school situation facing the schools of Illinois were given by Superintendents Smith and Waldo of the West and East School systems.

Mrs. Schmahl was the efficient chairman of the committee responsible for the success of the card party held at East High on April 2. All of the receipts from the sale of the tickets as well as from the sale of candy at the party were turned over to the treasury of the Senior Class of 1934.

In March when the annual Rough Neck Day arrived, the P. T. A. upheld its tradition of supplying cakes galore and assisting in making the day a success.

Again in May, when plans were being made for securing a loud speaker system for the auditorium, the P. T. A. came to the front, volunteering to assist the classes of '34 and '35 if aid were needed.

All of these acts of helpfulness which the organization has performed in a year's time are steps toward the fulfillment of its purpose—the creation of a mutual understanding by parents and teachers of the problems of high school education.

Front Row—Amundsen, Hamilton, Mr. Blackman, Mr. Attig, Thomson, Suhler.

Debate

East High climaxed a successful debate season by finishing third in the annual Big Six Debate Tournament which was held March 20 and 24.

This year the question for debate was Resolved: That the United States should adopt the essential features of the British system of radio control and operation. The respective sides of the question were upheld by the following teams:

AFFIRMATIVE

Thomas Alderson
Jules Barnat
Robert Reuss (Captain)

NEGATIVE

Thais Hamilton
Joe Suhler
Manley Perry (Captain)

The 1934 season opened on February 26 with the Red and Black debaters meeting Maine Township High School of DesPlaines. This was followed by other non-decision debates with Mooseheart, Mendota, and Newark high schools and the Toastmasters' Club of Aurora. The first decision debate of the year was held March 14 and the East affirmative defeated the Sandwich negative team. The following evening, however, East High's negative lost to the Sandwich affirmative.

The first conference debate with West High, which took place March 20, resulted in a victory for the East High negative but the East affirmative lost. In the second round of conference debates at Rockford, the East High affirmative defeated Joliet, Freeport, and Rockford but dropped a decision to Elgin, the conference champions. The East negative won their first debate of the second round from Joliet but lost the other three to Elgin, Freeport, and Rockford.

The affirmative during the season won four debates and lost two, while the negative took two decisions and dropped four, giving East High a season record of six wins and the same number of defeats. Mr. Attig coached the affirmative and Mr. Blackman had charge of the negative.

The "B" team debaters, who were Merry Jane Thomson, Ralph Zenner and Barron Knechtel, affirmative, and William Schwingel, Robert Amundsen, and Stanley Stiles, negative, received valuable experience by meeting the West High reserve team in a non-decision debate.

New members were added to the East High chapter of the National Forensic League during the year and four old members received high degrees for participation in forensic contests. Manley Perry and Robert Reuss received the Degree of Distinction for earning more than one-hundred credit points, and Joe Suhler and Jules Barnat were awarded the Degree of Excellence for having sixty points. The chapter officers for the year were Manley Perry, president, Robert Reuss, vice-president, and Joe Suhler, secretary.

In May, East High entered the annual Big Six Forensic Contest. Representatives, who were chosen by preliminary contests at East High, were entered in both the original oratory and extemporaneous speaking divisions.

The final Big Six Conference debate standing was as follows:

	Won	Lost	Percentage
Elgin	10	0	1.000
Freeport	6	4	.600
East High	5	5	.500
Rockford	5	5	.500
West High	4	6	.400
Joliet	0	10	.000

Back Row—Trimble, Schumacher, Richards, Gasper, Eberly, Gawzner, Kieso, Gleason.

Second Row—Mr. Stutz, Parker, Johnson, Clare, Brinkman, Reavell, Palmer, Thornton.

The Speculum Staff

Twenty - four industrious seniors with beaming faces met in Miss Turner's room last October sixteenth with plans for putting out the very best Speculum ever published by the seniors of East High. It is quite an honor to be a member of the Speculum staff, for one is chosen, not by the students, but by the teachers, who have a keen knowledge of the abilities of the various seniors and thus place them accordingly on the staff.

Miss Turner, the faculty literary adviser, announced that Connie Clare would edit the year book. Naturally that young lady was more than "thrilled" at the opportunity of editing the twenty-second volume of the East High Speculum. Her right hand man, or rather woman, was Virginia Reavell, whose assistance was most helpful.

One of the most difficult positions to fill well is that of literary editor. However, with Ruth Brinkman at the helm of that department, assisted by Ruth Johnson, Jean Smith, Ralph Eberly, Bob Richards and Landrith Parker, the work though long and strenuous, was accomplished on the dot, accurately and efficiently.

My, what a job Marian Burrell had in seeing to it that all the members of the Senior Class, the various sections and the clubs had their pictures taken on schedule. Those in the photography department know that it is not so easy to accomplish this task. However, under the efficient guidance of Marian, with Richard Thornton and Joe Gleason assisting her, the work of cutting, mounting, and labeling was completed in ample time to be placed into the hands of the engraver.

The art used in the designing of the Speculum was furnished by a special committee composed of ambitious young artists, Shirley Palmer, chairman, with Ray Gasper and Roy Connor as assistants.

Naturally there is a great deal of business which must be transacted in publishing a year book. With Leola Tews, Cyrilla Seifen and LaVyrne Kreitz as his assistants, Everett Schumacher managed this side of the annual with Mr. Stutz as faculty adviser.

The circulation department was taken care of by Erwin Kieso with William Gawzner, Doris Bowering and Roberta Abell as his helpers. Dorothy Weisgerber, Miriam Rokey, Violet Schramer, Goldie Amdal, and Dorothy Slaker industriously typed the many pages of our book.

The money for the publication of this book was not raised through contributions by the business men. The seniors decided that in these days of depression it would hardly be fair to ask the merchants to contribute, when they themselves were having to "crimp and save" so, in order to make ends meet. Therefore a finance committee, with Bob Trimble as chairman, was appointed. This committee raised the necessary money for the publication of the annual by giving several dances, "The Superstition Struggle," "The S. O. S. (Save Our Spec) Dance" and two after the Freeport and Elgin Basketball games. A dog show, with Zandra, Tarzan, and Play Boy, the three famous dogs of the movie world, brought in more money and a card party given by the Senior mothers also aided us financially.

The Auroran Staff

The East High Auroran, a student publication, under the leadership of Robert Oester, editor in chief, Robert Reuss, sports editor, Mr. Geil, faculty adviser, and Mr. Matthews, printing instructor, participated in many successful events during the year of 1934 . A capable staff, publishing the well written paper bi-monthly, introduced many new features this year.

Four columns covering various fields of news were inaugurated, making the Auroran a very interesting paper to read. Bob Reuss, sports editor, gave vital facts of the sport world in his column "Following the Ball." Thurston Joslyn reviewed the latest books in the school library in his column "Book Sparks." Ruth Johnson and Henry McCance supplied human interest in their columns, "Microscopic Jay" and "At the Keyhole With Mrs. Casey."

Because of the excellent work done by members of the staff, two important awards denoting journalistic merit were received by the Auroran during the last year. Quill and Scroll, the National Honorary Society for high school journalists, presented the Auroran with a first place rating in their survey of high school papers throughout the country, and the "Scholastic", sponsor of the Scholastic Editor contests, awarded the Auroran with a second place rating. Both awards were high honors for the Auroran.

Early last fall twelve representatives of the East High Auroran attended the Big Six Press Conference at Rockford. It was announced at the meeting that East High will be the scene of the conference for the coming year, and will act as host to the other conference schools at the next Big Six Press Conference, to be held next fall. The following people from East High attended: Mr. Geil, Jeanne Walker, Peg Ellis, Ruth Johnson, Jane Elfervig, Betty Trimble, Robert Hesselbaum, Joe Suhler, Robert Richardson, Robert Reuss, Lloyd Mathers, and Charles Hutchison.

The Auroran, although it is usually a four page paper, carried on the tradition of the last few years and published a large annual Christmas issue. The eight page paper has become a tradition at Christmas time with its special Christmas stories and poems.

A linebook reprinting all the best jokes and poems used in the Bowl of Applesauce in the last year was published and made available to the students at a small price, as a means of raising money for maintaining the Auroran.

The Senior Class Play

There was a general squeaking of seats and a murmur of suppressed excitement as the audience settled itself, eagerly anticipating the parting of the curtains on the first act of the Senior Class Play, "The Late Christopher Bean," by Sidney Howard. Slowly the curtains drew apart to reveal the lovely dining-room in the home of Dr. Haggett, a typical New England country doctor. The scenery, designed by the art department under the direction of Miss Shirley and Miss Lamoreaux, provided a perfect background for the colonial interior.

The story centers around Abby, a servant in the Haggett household, the only person who really appreciated the paintings of "Chris" Bean while he was still alive. Ten years after his death, the true value of his work is realized and is consequently in great demand. Sometime later the publication of his personal letters reveals to the art patrons that he had left his paintings in the possession of Dr. Haggett with whom he had stayed the latter part of his life. Museums and art collectors storm Dr. Haggett with breath-taking offers for the pictures which he had considered absolutely worthless. He is driven to distraction when Mrs. Haggett admits that she had burned all of the paintings because they had taken up too much room. In desperation Dr. Haggett takes Abby's portrait of herself, painted by Bean, and hurriedly sells it. Just as the elated purchaser is leaving with this masterpiece, Abby enters. No amount of persuasion can induce Abby to part with her beloved portrait. In the course of the ensuing conversation, Abby explains that she had rescued the seventeen pictures which Mrs. Haggett had thrown on the fire and had kept them. The joy of the Haggett family is unbounded as they find the means to great wealth within their grasp. Their dreams collapse suddenly when Abby blurts out that she had been secretly married to Bean just before his death and that he had left her all of his works. She has no desire for wealth and is determined to keep his pictures forever, faithful to his memory. The romantic interest is supplied by the affair of the younger Haggett girl, Susan, and Warren Creamer who is just gaining recognition as an artist.

Miss Thomas again proved her unusual ability as a coach, as the play, a very difficult production, was presented with a finish seldom found on an amateur stage. This year a new feature, that of omitting time between acts, was introduced. The curtains dropped but were raised immediately to denote the passing of time. This was one of the first times such an idea has been tried on a stage outside of New York and it proved most successful.

The production was presented to the Mooseheart children on Tuesday, April 3. This proved very successful and was of great assistance to the young artists, for it gave them more confidence in preparation for the "big night".

The Junior Class Play

The lights faded to dimness, a hush came over the audience, the curtains parted, and on Friday evening December 15, 1933, the Junior Class of East High presented "Honor Bright," a three act comedy by Meredith and Kenyon Nicholson, before a capacity crowd in the school auditorium. The play was directed by Miss Eliza Thomas, capable dramatic and English instructor of the school.

The setting of the story was the living room at "Rockmere," Beach Haven, Massachusetts, the home of Mrs. Barrington. The scenery, built by the art classes of the school, made an attractive background.

The story centered about Honor Bright, who was a book agent, selling reference books to pay her expenses through college. During the course of her first day's work she strayed into the Barrington home. Dick, the only son, was engaged to a chorus girl, whom his mother had invited to visit Rockmere. Dick's uncle and Aunt Peggy had stopped off on their way to Europe for the sole purpose of seeing Dick's fiancee, but she failed to appear. Dick became frantic, and in order to avoid embarrassment he decided to enlist the services of the book agent with the understanding that she leave after dinner. It was important for Dick to please his Aunt Peggy because it was expected that she would leave him a portion of her wealth in later years. In the meantime, the chorus girl arrived and much disturbance was created, as she refused to leave and permit Dick's relatives to remain with the original idea of the chorus girl. After much excitement Bill Drum, a suitor of Tot the chorus girl, arrived, and she impetuously decided to leave with him. Meanwhile Honor Bright had become the ideal of the family, and after her identity was disclosed she and Dick became engaged.

Much credit should go to Miss Shirley and Miss Lamoreaux and the student committee from the art department who planned and made all the scenery.

One cannot imagine the amount of work necessary for producing such a play. For several months, Miss Thomas with her twenty-two faithful juniors, practiced each evening after school. The result was well worth the time spent.

The simplicity and genuine feeling of the sketch, combined with the sympathetic manner in which the players handled it, made "Honor Bright" one of the finest Junior Class plays in some time.

The Band

Undoubtedly music gives greater pleasure to high school students than does any other art. Everyone enjoys music in some degree, and many enjoy it supremely. This has been proved by the fact that there are one hundred thirty-eight enrolled in the East High band. Every day during the eighth hour each member is busy learning his part of the music. Our director, Mr. Rosenbarger, and the assistant director, Mr. FitzGerald, are both highly accredited for the successful bands turned out at East High each year.

During the past year the band has played various engagements, such as parades, football and basketball games, graduation exercises, and numerous other places where it showed credit both to itself and to the school. Much of the success of our teams can be attributed to the spirit that is shown by the band. Thanksgiving Day when the annual football game was held, over one hundred boys from our band appeared resplendent in red and black uniforms. Between halves, the West High band combined with the East High band to form a large "E A" while our loyalty song was played and sung by the spectators. Later a large "W A" was formed in the same manner with the loyalty song of our competitors ringing out in the cold November day.

At the National Contest held in Evanston last April, 1933, we were classed as being one of the best bands in the entire nation and were placed in the first division. The annual fall and spring concerts were received most enthusiastically by the public. In the spring concert, the contest numbers such as "Finlandia," "The Roman Carnival," and "In Springtime," were played along with other lighter overtures, marches and novelty numbers.

The band operates on the same basis as that of any organization. Each year a president, secretary and librarian are elected. Each officer performs his assigned duty. This year Wayne Wigton acted as president with Walter Johnson as librarian.

East High can feel proud to be able to say that it is a school possessing one of the best musical organizations in the country.

One of the most valuable assets to the band is the "Band Boosters" organization. This year, under the capable leadership of Mr. A. L. Johnson, president, Mr. Tennant, vice-president, and Mr. Art Miller, secretary-treasurer, the club raised enough money to send the boys to Des Moines, Iowa, to compete in the National Band Contest. However, the "boosters" aided the band in more ways than this one. When cars were necessary to take the boys out of town, they were immediately supplied; in addition to this the band suits were put in order and the instruments cleaned and repaired. The parents and friends of any band boy are members of the club and always live up to their motto, "Boost the band."

The Girls' Glee Club

The Girls' Glee Club, under the leadership of Miss Margaret Pouk, has completed a year made doubly interesting by participation in musical events not only at home, but also outside of Aurora.

Twenty members of the club made seven trips to Elgin and Maywood in preparation for a concert given in Chicago in April. This concert is an annual affair sponsored by the In-and-About Chicago Club, which consists of the supervisors of thirty-one high schools in and about Chicago. The concert for this year was given at the Auditorium Theater in Chicago, not only for the regular audience (parents, friends), but also for the participants in the National Convention of Music Educators which was meeting at Chicago. The choral numbers were directed by Mr. Lee Osbourne of the Proviso High School at Maywood, with Sir Hugh Roberton as guest conductor. Sir Roberton directed the number "Celtic Hymn", his own composition. It gave the boys and girls an unusually close contact with their music in that they were singing under the baton of the composer. It also afforded them great pleasure to appear on a program in which the eminent director, Walter Damrosch, took part. Dr. Damrosch directed the In-and-About Chicago Orchestra in Massenet's "Phedre".

At home, the girls enjoyed acting as hostesses to the chorus members participating in the Fox River Music Festival held at East High on May 11.

The club this year was an unusually large one, and, as can be seen, one of unusual success, partly due to these leaders:

First Semester		Second Semester
Irene Backstrom	Pres.	Thais Hamilton
Edith Ernst	V. Pres.	Marian Merritt
Daisy Cross	Sec.	Eleanor Stine
Doris Buckley	Librarian	Eileen Esnorff
Doris Buckley	Pianist	Edith Ernst

The Boys' Glee Club

A club of twenty-two boys has triumphantly completed another year of study under Miss Pouk.

The boys who are members of the club this year, have shown unusual enthusiasm along with ability to present songs. Along with others, the following songs were studied: "Home on the Range", "Soldiers Chorus" (Faust) by Gounod, John Peel (English Folk Song) arranged by Andrews, "Keep in de Middle of de Road", a Negro Spiritual, "Bells of the Sea", "The Tinker's Song", and some A capella material.

At the Fox River Valley Music Festival held at East High in the spring, the boys sang "John Peel", "Soldiers Chorus" from Faust and "Keep in de Middle of de Road." Together with the girls, the cantata "A Song of Victory" by Fletcher was presented. This is an unusually difficult number seldom attempted by high schools. However, under the leadership of Mr. Ray D'vorak of the University of Illinois, who acted as guest conductor of the festival, the number was presented by the chorus in a splendid manner.

Eight of the boys, Jules Moore, Ronald Reiland, Maurice Misner, Frank McKinney, Charles Hines, Carl Schindel, Ray Gasper and John Nieman, were selected from the group and sent to the In-and-About Chorus at Chicago. The two outstanding numbers sung by the boys were "Howdy Do Miss Springtime", by David W. Guion, and the vigorous and inspiring song "High Barbarry", a chanty arranged by Arthur E. Hall.

In addition to the boys glee club, Miss Pouk also directed what was known as the Boys' Chorus. The Junior-Senior boys and the Freshman-Sophomore boys practiced alternately during the sixth period on Tuesdays. They appeared on different programs throughout the year. The boys hope this chorus will be continued next year.

The officers of the glee club elected for the second semester were: Ray Gasper, president; Carl Schindel, vice-president; and Darwin Valentine, secretary-treasurer. Doris Buckley assisted as pianist the first semester and Edith Ernst accompanied during the second semester.

First Violins—Abell, Haslem, Brinkman, Molitor, Ziegler, Blakinger, Hoffman, Zenner; Second Violins—Dreyer, Arndt, Orland, Reichenbacher, Keck, Wormwood, Gaddes, Dahlberg, Fidis, Schoenfielder; Viola—Zander; Flutes—R. Teichman, Doering, Clarinets—Wigton, Testin, Blanchard, G. Teichman; French Horns—W. Johnson, Benson; Trombone—R. Johnson; Cornet—Sternberg, Lowe, Stone; Bass Viol—Miller, Jeffers, Strong; Pianists—Lindstrom, Kroll; Harmonium—Krasinski; Director—Miss Pouk; Assistants—Misses Bell, Erickson.

The Orchestra

Included in the music department of East High is the orchestra, composed of forty-four members. This enrollment surpasses any in the history of the school. In the past year with the co-operation of Miss Pouk, the director, and the members, this organization has strengthened and accomplished its aim.

The orchestra meets each day during the fifth period. However, numerous sectional rehearsals are held outside of school. These rehearsals are conducted for the purpose of perfecting each individual's part. Not only does this help the orchestra as a whole but it tends to broaden the ability of each player.

It has always been Miss Pouk's aim to include in the repertoire of the orchestra, compositions which would prove interesting and still cover the entire field of orchestral music from the earliest classics to the present day composers.

The fulfillment of this ideal not only offers training in playing in an ensemble but in becoming acquainted with the better forms of music.

Among the classical compositions that have been studied in the past year are: "The Fifth Symphony," by Beethoven, and "The Surprise Symphony," by Haydn. Included as studies of the romantic period are "Valse Triste," by Sibelius, "Phedre," by Massenet, and "Ruy Blas," by Mendelssohn. "The Four Way Suite," by Hadley, and "The Rhapsody in Blue," by Gershwin, are representatives of the ultra-modern type of music.

A most enjoyable concert was given January 14, in the high school auditorium. This was a demonstration of the work being done in this department. The orchestra also played at other occasions, including the Junior and Senior class plays, and the graduation exercises.

This year the members chosen for the National High School Orchestra which gave its concert in Chicago at the Auditorium Theater, April 11, were: Roberta Abell and Shirley Bell, violins; Harold Benson and Walter Johnson, French-horns; Ralph Lowe, cornet; Robert Teichman, flute; Wayne Wigton, clarinet; and Robert McElroy, bassoon. The main purpose of this orchestra, which was composed of In-and-About-Chicago high school musicians, was to provide entertainment for the National Supervisors Convention. This was a great opportunity to enlighten and broaden the musical background of the school musicians.

The East High Orchestra is organized in a manner similar to all other school clubs and organizations. Each year new officers are elected. The presiding officers of this year were: Wayne Wigton, president; Donald Testin, vice-president; and Catherine Doering, secretary-treasurer.

Miss Pouk indeed deserves a great deal of credit for her splendid work in developing an orchestra of such high calibre as that of East High. It takes not only co-operation from the entire group of students but it requires a director who is familiar with every phase of music.

The Fox Valley Music Festival

On May 11, the music department of East High School acted in the pleasant capacity of host to the Fox River Valley high schools in a Spring Music Festival. This is an annual affair, each school taking turns in entertaining the others.

The combined bands presented their concert in the afternoon. Mr. Rosenbarger, chairman of band activities for the festival, conducted the first group of band selections, and Mr. Ray Dvorak from the University of Illinois was guest conductor.

The numbers presented by the band were as follows:

"Washington Post March" by Sousa.
"Finale Overture" by Losey
"Black Jack March" by Huffer
"Huldigunsmarsch" by Grieg
"March of the Spanish Soldiery" by de Smetsky
"Shepherd of the Hills" by Holmes
"Cuckoo March" by Goldman
"The Silver Chord Overture" by O'Neil
"The Military Band" by Yoder
"Spiritual Rivers" by Gault
"Stars and Stripes" by Sousa

The audience was favorably impressed with the quality of music shown by these high school bands. Here, no doubt, was seen, one of the proofs of Illinois' high ranking in producing nationally famous bands.

The combined orchestras presented the first part of the evening program. Mr. Dvorak conducted and Miss Emma Knudson of Elgin acted as chairman of orchestral activities. The choice of selections was superb. The compositions were as follows:

"The Fifth Symphony," First or Allegro Movement, by Beethoven
"Valse Triste" by Sibelius, Opera 44
"Marche Militaire Francaise" by Saint Saens
"March from Tannhauser" by Wagner

The vocal division, also directed by Mr. Dvorak, was under the guidance of Miss Margaret Dirks of Wheaton, who was chairman of the vocal activities.

The Girls Glee Clubs sang three very impressive numbers, consisting of:

"The Wind's in the South" by Scott
"Philomel, Thy Magic Singing" by Scarlatti
"Let All My Life be Music" by Spross

The first number is a very sweet, gay song of beautiful spring, very appropriate for the occasion. The second number included some very difficult coloratura soprano which was well done for such a large group.

The Boys' Glee Clubs proved themselves worthy of every possible praise. They, too, were directed by Ray Dvorak. Mr. Wayne Hertz of West Aurora was chairman. The songs presented were:

"John Peel" by Andrews
"Keep in the Middle of the Road" from the Yale Series
"Soldiers' Chorus" by Gounod

Miss Dirks of Wheaton arranged the boys' vocal numbers.

Perhaps the most difficult number of all was that presented by the mixed chorus. A cantata by Percy E Fletcher, called "A Song of Victory," is a number seldom even attempted by high school choruses.

However, it was successfully presented in perfect style. The song is a very patriotic song, telling of the invaluable services of manhood and motherhood. The strength of sentiment embodied in the song did much toward making the singers put their best into it. The chairman of the mixed chorus group was Mr. Harris of Geneva.

Miss Margaret Pouk, the person most influential in putting East High's music department "on the map", was chairman of the 1934 Fox Valley Festival. Miss Pouk had charge of all arrangements. Busy person that she is Miss Pouk always finds time to encourage students interested in finding the best in music. The excellent showing of the orchestra and the glee clubs made at the class plays and other public appearances speaks well for their director.

The Fox Valley Music Festivals originated in 1927, when St. Charles entertained the young musicians. Since that year, eight annual festivals have been sponsored, each one proving more successful than the last. 1930, however, ushered in a new feature, that of having bands take part also.

The 1934 Spring Music Festival was a huge success in every way. It is the hope of every member of the music department that future festivals may prove as interesting and valuable to them as this one.

ROY E. DAVIS

Pals of Mr. Davis' college days would be very much surprised to see him as a biology teacher, for his one desire then was to become a doctor, even though he majored in economics and history. However, as the efficient athletic director of East High, they may more easily recognize him, for while in college he was literally "full of athletics." For two years he played regular end on the football team, and in his last year he was captain of both the basketball and baseball teams.

Just recently he and his brother have written a "Workbook in Biology" for high school use, which is rapidly becoming popular in high schools of the middle west.

GLEN C. THOMPSON

Football, track and basketball, all are in "Tommy's" life. On the football field he is supreme. He loves hard charging linemen and hard tackling backs. In track, he develops men that have shown little ability before into stars. In basketball, he likes a fighting, hard-passing fast team.

He is a man of few words and when he does utter them, he means everything he says. He has a love for dogs, training all of them for rabbit hunting and racing. His dogs have won many prizes in the south.

AARON ALBRIGHT

In speaking of Coach Aaron Albright, you might easily say, "He is a man of high honor with great ability in coaching boys."

Six years ago, Mr. Albright came to Aurora. Since that first season, basketball has become one of the leading sports of East High. Mr. Albright surely deserves our admiration for the skill he has shown in forming a squad into a single fighting machine. Aside from basketball, the coach is interested in football, baseball and golf.

ROY McAFOOS

"My secret ambition is to write a science book." A rather unusual statement, coming from a football enthusiast, yet it is absolutely true.

Mr. Roy McAfoos, who makes this confession, is the lightweight football coach at East High. He also teaches science and perhaps this accounts for his statement.

Born in Southern Illinois, he attended Erving Prep College. Here he played full back on the football team and catcher on the baseball nine. At the University of Illinois, he earned his B.S. and M.A. degrees. Here he played full back and later, tackle on the Varsity Football team.

Besides an interest in all sports and sciences, he has a hobby, fruit growing. With such varied interests, life must hold a great deal of adventure for Mr. McAfoos.

C. G. GUNDERSON

A graduate of Ripon College, Wisconsin, Mr. Gunderson came to East High in 1930.

Besides earning awards in all major sports at college, he had full charge of athletics at two Wisconsin high schools before coming to East High. Through his tireless initiative and effort, he inaugurated into East High, our present intra-mural activities, for the benefit of all boys. In 1931, intra-mural basketball and diamond ball were introduced, while volleyball and horseshoes followed the next year. "Gundy" has shown himself to be a true sport, highly capable of his position as director of intra-mural activities.

ESTHER FRENCH

You will not find any teacher in the school better liked than Esther French. She is a fine athlete and teacher, perhaps because she grew up with the idea of teaching physical education.

She graduated from Fort Wayne Indiana High and attended Illinois State Normal University and Iowa State University. When, attending I.S.N.U., she was awarded the Mortar-Board which is the highest honor given to the most "all-around" senior girl, outstanding in scholarship, athletics and leadership.

The Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association of East High is a club for girls interested in athletics. The purposes of this club are to promote interest in athletics and the out-of-doors, to teach girls how to be healthy and strong and to uphold the ideals of good sportsmanship.

The officers of the club are president, Edith Andersen; vice-president, Margaret Ellis; secretary, Margaret Bourelle; treasurer, Cyrilla Seifen; point secretary, Eloise Crowell; faculty adviser, Miss Esther L. French.

Immediately after the opening of school in September the tennis team was organized. The team made one trip out of town, that one being to Elgin, where they were defeated in a close match. Sixteen girls represented East High.

A "kid party" was given at the first of the year for the purpose of initiating the new members of the club. The initiation was in the form of trials in court.

Outdoor sports, speedball and field hockey, were played from September till Thanksgiving. Field hockey was introduced as a new sport. Tumbling and tap dancing were also offered as after-schcol sports in the fall.

The East High G. A. A. had the pleasure of being hostess at two play days held at Young School in October. The schools represented at the first playday were Kankakee, Elgin, and Libertyville. Speedball, hockey, volley-ball, and basketball were played. Elgin and East Aurora girls also enjoyed a hockey play-day in the latter part of October.

After Thanksgiving vacation the girls' basketball season opened. There were approximately 150 girls out for this sport during the season. On March 19, the annual telegraphic basket-shooting tournament was held, closing the basketball season at East High. The class tournament was won by the Seniors.

One of the high spots of the season was the annual basketball playday held at Elgin this year. One team from each of the four classes was sent.

At the beginning of the second semester the girls then joining the club were initiated at a very clever Valentine Party. This initiation was in the form of a court of hearts. Thirty-three girls met the requirements and were allowed to join.

Volley-ball season began in March. A section volley-ball tournament was held again this year with practically every girl in the school participating.

Baseball, track, tennis, hiking, archery, tap dancing, and tumbling were the spring sports. The annual gym class track meet was held in the late spring at the East High athletic field.

Something unusual was begun in the way of a series of hikes. With the coming of spring a series of "buddy breakfasts" was held. There were eight hikes, and points towards G. A. A. awards were given to girls completing all eight hikes.

The awards won by participation in organized and unorganized sports were presented in May in convocation.

The annual all-sports banquet was held in May. It is given to close the activities of the G. A. A., and to honor the arriving teams in the various sports. All girls who have been out for some sport during the year are eligible to attend.

The camping trip at Quarry-ledge, which is held each year, closed the G. A. A. activities. It is an event to which all the girls look forward and long remember.

G. A. A. Awards

The Girls Athletic Association presents awards annually to those girls meeting the requirements. To earn the right to wear an East High award, a girl must have a good record in sportsmanship, scholarship, athletic ability, health and also be a member of the G. A. A.

Four awards are given—two local and two state. The first local award requires six hundred points in addition to the requirements mentioned above. This award is a black felt triangle. having the letters "A" and "G. A. A." in red felt. The following girls won the first local awards:

Freida Adam, Grace Ahasic, Dorothea Andersen, Ethel Andresen, Claire Bieschke, Viola Boyd, Marian Burrell, Betty Crowel, Charleen Dauwalder, Evelyn Dauwalder, Marian Dripps, Gladys Foster, Jean Hartman, Wilma Hem, Elizabeth Jacobs, Daphne Johnson, Dorothy Logue, Jean Presbrey, Irene Reichenbacher, Gladys Rothrock, Ida Schaefer, Dorothy Schoberlein, Doris Schroeder, Jean Schroeder, Shirley Schuster, Julia Searl, Elizabeth Thill, Ruth Thorpe, Dorothy Weigel, Mary Welsh, Jean Willemin, Aurel Wormwood, Jane Rees.

The second local award, requiring twelve hundred points, is a red chenille "A" on a black felt background. This award was given to the following girls:

Grace Ahasic, Edna Andresen, Ethel Andresen, Marian Burrell, Leona Covert, Charleen Dauwalder, Catherine Doering, Elizabeth Jacobs, Margaret Jeffers, Miriam Nelson, Dorothy Numerich, Helen Richardson, Doris Schroder, Shirley Schuster, Dorothy Weigel, Jean Willemin, Florence Zaeske.

The first state award is won by earning sixteen hundred points. It is a blue chenille "I" with white letters "G. A. A." on it. The letter is mounted on white felt. This year ten girls received this award. They were Edith Andersen, Edna Andresen, Leona Covert, Eloise Crowel, Catherine Doering, Margaret Jeffers, Miriam Nelson, Dorothea Numerich, Helen Richardson, Florence Zaeske.

Most difficult of all to earn is the last state award, requiring two thousand points. This award is a blue chenille figure in the shape of the state of Illinois, bearing the letters "G. A. A." in white. The figure is outlined in white felt and mounted on a blue banner. The following girls earned the last award: Edith Andersen, Margaret Bourelle, Gertrude Churchill, Eloise Crowel.

Points are earned by taking class gym, training, and by participating in organized and unorganized sports. The organized sports for East High girls in the fall are: tennis, speedball, field hockey, tap dancing and tumbling. With the winter season come basketball and basketball refereeing. Along with spring come volley-ball, tennis, baseball, tumbling, tap dancing, and hiking. For taking part in any one of these sports at eight regular practices, a girl receives forty points. If she passes skill tests in some of the sports, additional points are given.

The unorganized sports which are not supervised are: walking, skating, bicycling, horse-back riding, swimming, track and tennis. For eight hours participation in any one of these sports, twenty points are given.

For each award, a girl must train for sixteen consecutive weeks or for two eight week periods. Sixty-four points are given for each sixteen-weeks' period of training. The health rules used are specified by the State League of Girls' Athletic Associations of Illinois.

Basketball

Basketball is one of the most interesting sports offered the girls at East High.

Each season there are eight weeks of general practice in which the senior, junior, sophomore, and freshmen girls play against each other. After the eight weeks of practice, a tournament is played by all girls who come out. Class teams are then chosen. These teams then play a tournament and the winners are the champions of the year.

The girls chosen for the class teams for the year of 1934 were as follows:

Seniors: E. Andersen, M. Ellis, M. Burrell, M. Bourelle, C. Seifen, I. Sauer, E. Hazelwood, E. Crowel, captain.

Juniors: H. Richardson, M. Nelson, D. Numerich, L. Covert, E. Andresen, M. Jeffers, C. Doering, M. Gage, captain.

Sophomores: E. Andresen, J. Willemin, I. Reichenbacker, W. Hemm, D. Schroeder, E. Thill, D. Weigel, S. Schuster, captain.

Freshmen: J. Winans, B. Crowel, D. Andersen, C. Beischke, J. Presbrey, F. Adam, C. Foster, J. Phillips, captain.

The seniors were the champions of 1934. The first game the seniors played was against the sophomores with a victory of 24-14. They then played the juniors and won by the close score of 18-16.

Tennis

Interscholastic competition for girls is permitted only in golf, tennis, and archery. Of the three sports, East High has found tennis the most interesting.

In September, thirty-nine girls entered the school tournament. The results were as follows: Connie Clare won the junior-senior division and Catherine Doering was runner-up; from the sophomore class, Kathryn Royston was winner and Emily Kish, runner-up; and from the freshman division, Bernice Krasinski was winner and Lois Schaefer runner-up.

The three class winners then played for the school championship with honors going to Kathryn Royston and Connie Clare, champion and runner-up respectively.

On October 4, 1933, the tennis team journeyed to Elgin. Out of nine sets, East High won three.

The spring program was quite full—Elgin and Mendota played here, and the tennis team played Kankakee at Kankakee.

The members of the tennis team were: Seniors: Daisy Cross, Connie Clare, Marian Burrell. Juniors: Virginia Frenier, Miriam Nelson, and Jeanette Wollenweber. Sophomores: Kathryn Royston, Emily Kish, and Gretchen Meyer. Freshman: Betty Hallgren, Bernice Krasinski, Betty Kelly, Viola Miller and Lois Schaefer.

Speedball

Speedball was introduced for the first time at East High in the fall of 1932.

It is a combination of soccer and basketball. The game is played outdoors. East High did not have sufficient space, so the Young School playground was used.

The sophomore team which consisted of C. Jacobs, left wing; S. Schuster, left inner; D. Weigel, center forward; I Reichenbacker, right inner; G. Ahasic, right wing; M. Welsh, left half back; R. Farley, right half back; E. Esnorff, left forward; D. Schroeder, right end; E. Andresen, co-captain, goal keeper; beat the freshmen by the score of 15-3. The freshman team consisted of H. Schaedler, D. Lee, F. Myer, D. Geist, P. Thorpe, V. Parlow, J. Phillips, B. Hallgren, A. Wormwood, D. Andersen, J. Presbrey, captain, C. Bieschke, and L. Syverson.

The sopohomores being victorious played the junior-senior team which consisted of D. Numerich, captain; F. Zaeske, H. Richardson, L. Covert, E. Andresen, M. Jeffers, M. Bourelle, M. Nelson, D. Biever, C. Dauwalder, G. Churchill, Edna Andresen, I. Schaefer and E. Crowel, and beat them 20-12.

The girls who were out for speedball enjoyed it very much and are looking forward to another season when more skill will be developed.

Field Hockey

Field hockey is a fast moving game played to a great extent in Eastern high schools and in almost all colleges. It was played for the first time in recent years at East High school this year, being offered to sophomores, juniors and seniors and accepted with great enthusiasm.

Regular practices were held for sophomores alone while juniors and seniors practiced together. Class teams were chosen and at the end of the fall season a tournament was held to determine the class championship. The junior-senior team was victorious in a 4-1 game.

The sophomore hockey team players were: S. Schuster, captain, G. Ahasic, I. Reichenbacker, D. Weigel, E. Jacobs, M. Welsh, W. Hemm, E. Thill, E. Andresen, D. Schroeder, R. Farley, E. Esnorff.

The junior-senior team was: M. Jeffers, Jr. captain, D. Numerich, M. Nelson, E. Andreson, E. Crowel, Sr. captain, F. Zaeske, G. Churchill, A. Andersen, M. Bourelle, M. Ellis.

Hockey skill tests were given and those people who passed the skill tests were given twenty-four points to be credited to their G. A. A. award points. One of the tests was to make eight successful goal drives from eight different positions on the striking circle line. The other test was to be able to dribble fifty yards in sixteen seconds.

SOPHOMORE SPEEDBALL TEAM

Reichenbacker, Esnorff, Andresen, Captain, Schroeder, Schuster, Weigel, Jacobs, Ahasic, Welsh.

FIELD HOCKEY CHAMPIONS

Numerich, Andersen, Doering, Jeffers, Captain, Richardson, Covert, Bourelle, Ellis, Nelson, Crowell, Captain.

Heavyweight Football

Under good guidance and leadership, East High's team fared very well in the past season. Coach Thompson fashioned his team from four regulars and former substitutes. When the season was ready to open, Captain Howard Fauth, left guard, presented the following lineup to the public: Bill Hawking, left end; Wilbur Johnson, left tackle; Howard Fauth, left guard; Al Franzen, right tackle; Joe Vaughy, right end; Al Flynn, quarter back; Clem Coleman, left halfback; Jack Connors, right halfback; "Ossie" Federspiel, fullback, and John Miller, center.

After a scrimmage with Oak Park on September 9, the Tomcats were ready for their first game, which came on September 22 with St. Charles. This first game proved to be a scoring spree for East High, for we were victorious by a score of 32 to 0.

The next test came on September 29 with the powerful York team of Elmhurst. This game did not prove as easy, but the Tomcats emerged from the struggle on top by a score of 19 to 0.

On October 6, East High team played the highly praised team of J. Sterling Morton of Cicero. This team did not appear so good to our fans because our team won by the score of 32 to 0.

Making their first trip from home on October 20, East High went to Joliet. The teams might just as well have gone in for swimming, because that is about all they did in the pool of mud and showers of rain. After both teams slid and skidded for four quarters, the game ended in a pleasing scoreless tie.

Back on our home grounds on October 27, East High again showed a great running attack against the Pretzel team from Freeport. The game ended 19 to 0 in favor of East High.

Elgin brought a powerful eleven to East High on November 4. This proved to be one of the hardest games we had throughout the year. It was an even and hard fought battle, but East High managed to win by a score of 7 to 6.

The second trip away from home on November 11 proved disastrous for the Tomcats. They played nip and tuck football with the heavy team from Rockford until the fourth quarter. Here Rockford managed to place-kick a field goal and by virtue of this they won by a score of 3 to 0. This sent the team back with its first and only defeat.

For the last few years East has been playing Parker High from Chicago. This year they could not miss, so they played the strong team from the city and defeated them to the tune of 14 to 6.

Now came the great climax in football as far as Aurora fans are concerned. The great Turkey-Day game was to be played on our field on November 30. This year there seemed to be a great deal of rivalry between the two sides and it was much to the joy of the East Side that we won 13 to 0.

Thus ended our successful football season. Four men, Sabados, Hawking, Franzen, and Federspiel made the first All-Conference team. Sabados had the distinction of being picked on the third state team. Although seven out of the eleven players graduate, it seems quite probable that next year's team has a good future in store for it under the leadership of Andy Sabados.

Lightweight Football

Although our lightweights did not have such a good season, as far as the conference is concerned, they had a mighty fine team, small but with plenty of fight. They were coached by Coach McAfoos, with Louis "Pee Wee" Jakious as their captain. The line-up used for most of the season was: "Stan" Ellertson and Ed Kaluza, ends; Glen Jeffers and Paul Seifrid, tackles; Boyden and Pyle, guards; Schumacher, center; Druschel, quarterback; Cooper and Jakious, halfbacks; and Piron or Schindlebeck at fullback.

On September 22 the East ponies used their running attack to a good advantage, trouncing the St. Charles lightweights 25 to 0.

On September 30 the lightweights took a trip to Oak Park. Here they continued to win and they trimmed Oak Park 13 to 0. In this game the lightweights seemed to show a good running and passing attack.

As Morton High had no lightweights, our team played the lightweights from Proviso. This was the last game before the opening of the conference, so in order to make a good impression on enemy conference teams, our ponies defeated Proviso by the score of 18 to 7.

On October 20 the little fellows took their first conference journey to the prison city, Joliet. Rain all day long had made the field into a sea of mud. So the boys merrily splashed around for four quarters and ended the game in a scoreless tie.

Next we were to meet Freeport on our field on October 27. These boys had a tough little team and our team, through hard tackling and blocking, was able to hold the Pretzelites to a scoreless tie.

On November 4 the conference champions for several years came to town. Elgin has always been known for its strong lightweight teams and it seemed sure that they would just add us to their long string of victories. Our boys played good football and held the maroon team also to a scoreless tie.

With Armistice Day, November 11, came our game with Rockford at Rockford. So far we had played three conference games and we had no wins or defeats. All of our games were scoreless ties. This game with the rablets put an end to that, for they defeated our ponies 13 to 2. Although this was our first conference defeat, we had scored our first conference points in this game.

At last came the game the boys had been waiting for. Of course this was the game with West High on November 25. The teams appeared to be evenly matched and there even seemed to be a chance of our winning, but West High defeated our ponies by the score of 6 to 0.

This ended our season. Of course with no conference victory, our standing was low. We ended up with three scoreless ties and two defeats to our credit. In all our conference games we managed to squeeze out but two points. The lightweights will lose seven regulars by graduation. This will leave four regulars and the rest will be new material. This will give "Mac" the job of building up a new team which we hope will be a scoring team and one that will manage to stand high in the conference.

Heavyweight Basketball

The 1933-34 basketball season for the Albrightmen was not as unsuccessful as the small number of wins seems to indicate. The Big Six Conference was tougher this year than it has been for several years. East High, however, played most of their best games against the leaders of the conference.

The season opened with two games in a row. The first, the Red and Black lost at LaGrange 23 to 21 in the last minute of play. However they fully redeemed themselves the following evening by soundly trouncing Graysville, Indiana, 25 to 17. Since Graysville was coached by Mr. Albright's brother, the victory was doubly sweet.

The conference opened a week later at West High, where East was defeated 20 to 18. After East led through the entire game until the last twenty seconds, a Red and Blue basket spelled defeat for East.

Rockford next invaded the East High gym and went home on the small end of a 20 to 17 score. The Red and Black, although playing a ragged game, managed to keep far enough in the lead to win.

The following week the cagers took a long trip to Freeport and were defeated 25 to 18. This game was much closer than the score indicates, as the Red and Black were ahead at the end of the third quarter 18 to 17. However in the final quarter, the Pretzels went wild, scored seven points and held the local boys scoreless.

The Joliet club, champions of the Big Six, next came to town and romped over our boys 35 to 20.

The first half of the conference ended the following week at Elgin where the Red and Black were again beaten 42 to 28, after they had held the strong Maroons to a three point advantage for three quarters.

The Red and Black then played a return game here with LaGrange and defeated them 30 to 28 in two overtime periods.

West High next invaded the East's floor to start the second round of the conference, and after losing 15 to 0 in the middle of the second quarter, the Red and Black put on a beautiful rally which ended the game at 23 all. After playing two overtimes, the Red and Blue held a one point advantage, 27 to 26. The two coaches, however, had agreed that the winner must be two points ahead, so it was called a tie, and was played off two weeks later with the Red and Blue winning 33 to 14.

East then traveled to Rockford where they were defeated 34 to 22. However, they redeemed themselves a week later here, by beating the Freeport team 31 to 28 in a beautifully played game.

Joliet then defeated the locals, 36 to 25, on the huge Prisoners' floor, but the Red and Black played a very good game.

Elgin closed the conference here by overpowering the locals 33 to 30, after the Red and Black had outplayed and outscored them for three and a half quarters.

The Albrightmen will lose only three men this year through graduation, so a powerful team is expected next year. The three leaving are Captain Francis Hearn, Jack Connors and Frank Smith. The rest of the squad consisted of Habermeyer, Druschel, Flynn, Jim Smith, McKidie, Emery, Ellertson, Edwards, Buttels, Lennert, Welcher, Perkins, A. Phillips and C. Phillips.

Francis Hearn was high scorer for the year with 76 points. James Smith was second with 41 and Bill Druschel made 29 for third.

Front Row—Woodrick, Ohrlein, Captain Kaluza, Piron, Koteles.

Lightweight Basketball

The record of the 1934 East High lightweight basketball season is a rather disastrous one, showing only two games won out of ten played. A good team was expected for the lightweights when only one man was lost last year through graduation. However, due to the loss of men because of weight, the remaining lettermen failed to "click".

The lightweights started by winning two hard-fought games against LaGrange and Graysville. The score at LaGrange was 22 to 17, while the Graysville team was beaten 23 to 11 on our own floor.

The conference season started off badly for us. We lost a heartbreaking game to West High by one point on their floor. However, the following week a defeat was handed to Rockford on our home floor, the East boys winning 20 to 17.

In the following three games, the Red and Black were defeated by Freeport, Joliet and Elgin, the Joliet game being played on the home floor with a score of 34 to 22 in favor of Joliet.

In the second round of the conference, the Red and Black lightweights lost to West High again, which dampened the spirits of the boys greatly. Then, at Rockford, the following week, a terrible beating was handed the Thompsonmen—the score reading 33 to 14 at the end of the game.

A very exciting game was played on our own floor against Freeport. The two teams were closely matched throughout the entire game, but our boys managed to push the ball through the basket in the last minute of play, causing the score to become 30 to 28 in our favor.

Another heartbreaking defeat was given the Red and Black team at both Joliet and Elgin, the Joliet team beating us by one basket, 16 to 14, and the Elgin men only winning by a free throw, making the score 30 to 29.

On the offensive, Captain Kaluza, Jakious and Koteles were the "big guns", leading the team in scoring. Jakious had a hard job "getting going", but later in the season proved very effective. Captain Kaluza was consistent in his scoring throughout the season. Koteles was the most efficient scorer on the team but did not seem to take advantage of his opportunities in all cases.

On the defensive, Koteles and Captain Kaluza were the most important cogs, breaking up dash after dash for the basket, and intercepting pass after pass. Woodrick and Oehrlein also counted much, both on offense and defense. Woodrick turned out to be a capable basket-getter and ended the season fourth in East's scoring. Oehrlein, a flashy left-hander, improved in playing ability as the season grew, and though he was not a very high-ranking scorer, his defensive ability was remarkable.

Out of the twenty players on the squad at the beginning of the season, only fourteen stayed with the squad. The players who ended the season with the team were as follows: Captain Kaluza, Koteles, Woodrick, Oehrlein, Jakious, Piron, Smith, George, Miller, Numerick, Cooper, Ream, Crane and Stoner.

Next year will see only one regular back to the lightweights, for Kaluza, Koteles, Jakious, and Oehrlein will be lost through graduation. Woodrick who is the remaining regular, might be too heavy to play lightweights next year. This shows that next year's lightweights will be a new, green team with everything to learn.

Indoor Track

The East High Indoor Track team, under the capable guidance of Coach Glen Thompson, and led by their captain, "Clem" Coleman, had a very successful season compared with that of 1933, in spite of the inexperienced team and the loss of several good men last year.

Due to the lack of training facilities, East High lost their first meet to York High of Elmhurst at the Mirner Fieldhouse, by a score of 63-2/3 to 31-1/3. The squad as a whole did exceedingly well for the first meet of the season.

The second indoor meet was supposed to have been a triangular meet with Naperville, LaGrange, and East High, but LaGrange failed to appear, so it was a dual affair between Naperville and East High. East got revenge for the beating handed them by Naperville last year, by winning, 51 to 44. Nunn was East High's high point man, capturing the high jump, broad jump, placing third in the low hurdles, and running third on the relay team.

Encouraged by their victory over Naperville the squad encountered Joliet in their third and most exciting meet. Joliet has never defeated Coach Thompson's men in a dual meet. After the broad jump was completed, the final score read 58 to 57 in favor of East High. In this meet East High's relay team, composed of "Clem" Coleman, Paul Stuart, Bill DeLess, and Ray Stapleton, broke the Interscholastic Fieldhouse Record at the Naperville Fieldhouse, formerly held by Naperville High, by 1.8 seconds, being clocked in 1.13 flat. The 60 yard indoor record for East High was also shattered by .1 of a second, by Ray Stapleton, erstwhile dash man, who was timed in 6.5 seconds.

East's fourth indoor meet was one in which the boys showed up very well. The second invitational meet was held at night in the Naperville Fieldhouse. East High's entries showed up well, placing men in several events.

The personnel of the 1934 squad during the indoor season was : Coleman and Stapleton in the 60 yard dash; Stuart, Nunn and Young in the hurdles; Stapleton in the 440; Patterson and Stafford in the 880; Wolfe in the mile; Nunn and Stuart in the high jump; Nunn and Stuart in the broad jump; Sabados and Engle in the shot put; Young in the pole vault; and Coleman, Stuart, DeLess and Stapleton in the relay.

Due to the profits made from football this year, the track team enjoyed more indoor meets than usual. This year's squad also developed several outstanding performers, who were heard from in outdoor track. Some of these men should develop into stars in their remaining years at East High. "Cliff" Young was a consistent winner in the pole vault, not being defeated in indoor competition. He vaulted ten feet regularly. Paul Stuart was a five event man during most meets. Always a point winner, he was very dependable. Stapleton, the speed artist, was always trying to break records. Captain Coleman was a very capable and efficient leader. "Russ" Patterson was always heard from in his specialty, the half-mile. Sabados and Engle were always placing in the shot put. Bill Nunn could always be counted on for points in his two specialties, the high jump and the broad jump.

Back Row—Coach Thompson, Stafford, Hawking, Pagel, Arlen, Eckert.

Third Row—Clark, Boyce, Barley, Scott, Meyers, Onak, Oberwise.

Second Row—Vaghy, Sabados, Engle, Stuart, Plumber, C. Coleman, Captain; DeLess, Cyko.

Outdoor Track

With the close of spring football practice, Coach Thompson again turned his attention to acclimating his array of athletes to outdoor track events. A few evenings' work-outs showed prospects for a good winning season. Indoor records had been very satisfactory and indications pointed to a successful carry-over in the outdoor meets of the spring.

The mainstays of East High's team were: Coleman, Stapleton, and DeLess in the 100 yard dash; Coleman, Stapleton, and Mabrey in the 220; Plummer and Stapleton in the 440; Patterson alone in the half-mile; Wolf, East's "lone wolf" miler; Smith, Stuart, and Nunn—high jump and broad jump; Stuart low hurdles; Stuart and Young in the high hurdles; Young and Cyko in the pole vault; Sabados and Engle in the shot put; Sabados, Franzen and Engle in the discus; Connors, Franzen and Engle in the javelin; and the relay team of Coleman, Mabrey, Stuart, and Stapleton.

The first meet of the season came on the home track April 14, with Joliet. We won to the tune of 70-52. East High had three double winners in this meet. Roy Stapleton won both of the dashes; Billy Nunn captured the high jump and the broad jump; while Everett Engle took the shot put and discus. Altogether the team won first in nine events; however, Joliet scored the only slam—in the mile.

A week later the team invaded Elgin and subdued that team with a score of 80-42. In this meet East won eleven of the fourteen events. Stapleton again won both the 100 and the 220 yard dashes. Piron won the 440, Patterson the half-mile, Wolf the mile, and Stuart the high hurdles. In the field events Young won the pole vault by going over the bar at 10 feet 8 inches, Nunn high-jumped into first place with a final leap over 5 feet 8¾ inches, Engle heaved the 12-pound shot 45 feet 2½ inches, and Franzen won the discus by sailing the platter 107 feet 2 inches. East High's relay team, composed of Capt. Coleman, Mabrey, Stuart and Stapleton won the half-mile relay in 1:38.7.

Two weeks after the Elgin meet the team entered the annual Kane County meet at Batavia. East High backed four first places with five seconds, five thirds and two fourths to score 49 points.

Batavia, host school, was second with 30½ points, while West High was third with 28½. Elgin, which finished fourth, scored 21 points. They were far in front of the rest of the schools.

East High, showing a fine balance which more than overcame the lack of any outstanding stars, placed in every event with the exception of the mile and the broad jump. Ray Stapleon was the leading scorer with wins in both dashes, while Paul Stuart came in first in the high hurdles and the relay team of Clement Coleman, Garnet Mabry, Stapleton and Stuart tied the county record of 1:36, set in 1931 by Elgin.

On May 12, we competed in the district meet held at Elgin. On May 8, in the State meet at the University of Illinois, on May 26, in the Big Six Conference meet at Elgin and on June 2, closed the season with a dual meet with West High on West High's track.

Our records throughout the season have been excellent and with several of the "stars" returning next year, we should be able to repeat the performance in 1935.

Back Row—Erikson, Habermeyer, C. Wolf, G. Smith, Plumber, Blake, Ahasic.

Third Row—Rokop, F. Mabrey, Verbic, Pietkiewicz, Lange, Schindlbeck; Flynn.

Second Row—Nunn, Patterson, Stapleton, J. Smith, Clarence Wolf, Young, G. Mabrey, Perkins.

Tennis

Tennis has rapidly gained popularity in the boys' athletics. Each year more candidates come out. This year we are exceptionally lucky in having several letter men back. The boys are a hard working lot and each is striving to play in the single matches or on the double teams.

Robert Burns, assistant teacher of history at East High, has taken full charge of the new squad. Their practices take place on the cement courts at West High or on the courts at City Park.

According to the schedule the boys will have plenty of chance to show their skill against their opponents. The matches to be held with other schools are: two with West High, two with Joliet, and two with Elgin.

Of course there will be the usual tournaments. They are: the district tournament at Joliet, the county tournament at West High, the Big Six Conference tournament at West High, and the Triangular tournament (Joliet, West High, and East High) at West High.

The boys on the tennis squad are Ray Gasper, Stanley Ellertson, Thomas Alderson, Maurice Misner, Bud Doering, Art Moore, Lorenzo Marek, Herbert Chudzick, Fred Carter, and Robert Miller.

Golf

The District Golf meet in the spring of 1933 was held at the Waubonsie Club. East High was represented by Carl Haag, Eldred Frick, Harley Stoner, and Edward Kaluza. The three former boys graduating last year left Edward as the only experienced player on the 1934 squad. As in other spring sports, those qualifying in the District meet are eligible for State competition.

At the county meet held at the Fox Valley Club, Clement Coleman, Gerald Ream, Edward Kaluza, and Paul Stewart competed. However, the meet was won by Gostelle of Elgin.

In the Spring of 1934 the sport was extended to include several dual contests in addition to the District meet. Also inter-class events, of a tournament nature, served as a means of giving competition to those non-qualifying members of the team.

A number of boys interested in golf serve as caddies during the summer.

The members of the 1934 Spring team were: Ed Schoo, Joe Bodi, John Schossler, Gerald Ream, Clifford Graf, Charles Koteles, Harold Bretthauer, Robert Stuart, George Schramer, Bill Smith, Donald Zander, Edward Kaluza, Earl Akerlow, Bud Williams, and Herbert Habermeyer.

Intramural Sports

The Intramural program, composed of basketball, volleyball, baseball, and horseshoe, met with great success throughout the year. As in other years, intramural sports furnished a majority of the boys of the school the means of competing in athletics during the noon hour. Here they met teams of their own calibre and developed a sportsmanship and fighting spirit often envied by conference teams. The organization was planned, managed and officialed by the students themselves under the direction of Mr. Gunderson.

The basketball tournament, which was run off with a smoothness that rivaled that of preceding years, was responded to one-hundred per cent by the sections. The tournament was divided into three divisions, the Senior, Junior and Freshman leagues.

The Senior division was won by Mr. Blackman's quintet, which also won the championship title of the High School. The Junior league was mastered by Miss Doolen's five, while Miss Gleason's cagers won the title in the Freshman division.

Mr. Blackman's fast-stepping cagers left a flawless record behind them, having eleven victories and no defeats. Miss Doolen's cagers accomplished eleven victories and one defeat, this one defeat being at the hands of the Blackman quintet in the finals for the school championship. Miss Gleason's succeeded in chalking up nine victories and two losses.

Thirteen sections pledged their support to the volleyball tournament which immediately followed that of basketball. All of the games were played in the high school gymnasium during the noon-hour. Mr. Gunderson's section came out in the lead and carried off the honors.

The baseball and horse-shoe tournaments were played during the latter part of the year, each meeting with great success.

The intramural program was managed by Carl Schwerer and Ed Schoo under the guidance of Mr. Gunderson, faculty adviser. Assisting them were Harold Bretthauer, George Hinebaugh, Frank Marshall and Bill King.

Equipment used in the intramural program is purchased by the director of athletics from profits made on other school sports, and is free to any boy enrolled in high school.

The intramurals have progressed greatly during the last three years under Mr. Gunderson. It has served its purpose not only as a form of recreation for boys who are unable to go out for the major sports, but also in developing the ability of the boys to such an extent that many of them are later able to play on the varsity teams.

Roughneck Day

It has come and gone—that sportive and much-enjoyed Roughneck Day. We certainly welcomed it, because—well, in the first place, we "got out" of a whole afternoon of school. Every one came to school dressed in "this 'n that." Not to mention any names, but we saw one fellow there dressed in a Spanish costume, with little "what do you call 'ems" dangling thither and yon; a fine lady with her pet dog passed me on the stairs; "Sambo" and "Mose" could be seen in a dozen varieties; ragged Huck Finn was there and behind him with a stick was Aunt Polly.

About one-thirty or so we all toddled into the auditorium to see the different stunts. They were good, too; there was a stunt called—humm, if you can't remember we are disgusted and refuse to disclose our favorite. (This is private, but we thought the Seniors were pretty good.) After standing (yes, we had to stand for what seemed to us hours and hours through the hub-bub and uproar) we rushed with the rest of the school to the gym for dancing. We settled ourselves to dance, when to our dismay we had to wait till the cleverest dressed people were selected and awarded cakes as prizes. Then just as our patience and good humor were on the verge of collapse, the orchestra started and we happily waltzed away to the end of another "Roughneck Day".

Student Day

This year's novel "Student Day" marked another successful endeavor in extra curricular citizenship training by the students of East High. The complete running of the school on the morning of Roughneck Day, March 23, by student principal, secretaries, teachers, and deans marked its initial attempt in East's history.

Its successful operation has established, through consent of the administration, another of East's democratic traditions. The day was sponsored by a Student Council committee following the idea presented by Burton Burkhart to the faculty for its consent. Manley Perry was elected by the student body to act as principal and chose Connie Clare as his secretary and Betty McLallen as office assistant. The Boys' and Girls' Clubs Cabinets chose Clement Coleman and Betty Trimble as their deans, respectively. Approximately one hundred and forty students taught morning classes and sixteen hundred students participated with an interest that proved its popularity and guaranteed its success. Even the janitors were given a holiday and overalled seniors weilded brooms and dust pans.

The Student Council Committee that planned the day consisted of Manley Perry, chairman; Connie Clare, Burton Burkhart, Harold Weingartner, and Bob Amundsen. Future "Student Days" will be held separate from Roughneck Day.

Freshman Initiation

The Freshmen met their "Waterloo" on the East High stage March 1, when the whole student body assembled to initiate them into our great institution.

Although Eleanor Blandford did not relish the juicy Bermuda onion given her, Seymor Simon enjoyed his so much that he was given another on which to chew. This seemed to satisfy his hunger.

Don Weishew should be able to write a book on "The Correct Way to Propose," after he did a good job of going down on his knees to Mildred Daybrook. Mildred was then made to sit on Wayne Warren's lap.

Throughout the entire program, the seniors did not forget the one great quality, cleanliness. To illustrate their feeling they presented John Popp with soap and water with which to wash his face. Jean Lowry was given a bigger and better tooth brush with which to cleanse her teeth, and they ordered Ralph Schuster to scrub the stage floor.

Bob Harmon was graciously smeared with blueberry pie, while Bruno Seraphine and Edna Omera were smeared with lipstick.

Rollin Cary tried the fete of rolling an egg across the stage which proved very unsuccessful.

Phyllis Mack had the laborious task of transporting water with a teaspoon from one bucket to the other. Florence Goding and Althea Moore sang "Wave the Flag" and "Keep Young and Beautiful."

Salesmanship Week

Money, money, money! Everyone needed money, and money could not be found, so what was the logical thing to do but to become salesmen for a week and see what we could sell. This plan proved more than interesting. A representative of the Curtis Publishing Company told us we might enrich our treasury by promoting one of their much-used-in-other-high-schools magazine sales contests. After due deliberation on the part of the Student Council and the faculty a campaign was planned. This plan proved more than successful. To be exact, $908.75 worth of magazines were sold, of which the school, after purchasing numerous prizes, received $324.37. This money was divided equally between the Boys' and Girls' Clubs, the Band and the Student Council.

The school, during the week of October 19, was divided into two groups, the Blue Team, "The Flying Cloud," of which Miss Underwood and Mr. Hunter were captains, and the Red Team, the "Westward Ho," under the command of Miss Anderson and Mr. Rosenbarger. Captains were also appointed in each section to take care of the number of subscriptions sold. Everybody who sold even one subscription obtained a prize and those who sold three dollars worth received a free pass to the Thanksgiving Day Game as well. After keen competition the Blue Team finally defeated the Reds who sold only 281 subscriptions to their 320.

Dances

A great many dances were given this year, for dancing seemed to bring in the "cash" and money was just what we needed.

The first dance, given by the Seniors on Friday, October 13, was rightfully called "The Superstition Struggle." Here one hundred forty couples danced to Sammy Berk's orchestra. The next dance the Seniors sponsored was called the "S. O. S." (Save Our Spec) dance. This time Bobby Trent's orchestra played.

Of course the Annual Football Dance was held on December 23, with music furnished by Len Hyatt's Illinoisan orchestra. All football players, both heavyweight and lightweight, band members and cheer leaders were eligible to attend.

The Band Boosters put on an old-time dance and card party on January 26, with music donated by Bob Hesselbaum's orchestra for the young people, and Jimmy Haslem's Hayseeders furnished the music for the older folk.

Orrin Tucker's orchestra played for the St Patrick Dance held March 17 which was sponsored by the Junior Class. This dance was followed by another one, given by the Seniors on April 21, at which Ken Perrin's orchestra played.

Of course Delphi and the Auroran gave their annual dances. The Junior Prom ended the dancing parties with a "bang".

The Minstrel Show

Fun, laughter and comedy! That's what the Minstrel Show, given last January 12, meant to the overwhelming crowd of spectators who jammed the auditorium doors to hear their songs, dancing and "wisecracks". This entertainment was sponsored by the Boys' Club and the Band, with music arranged by Mr. Rosenbarger, the band director.

The comical interlocutor was the journalism faculty member, Mr. Geil. His ten "End Men" were Chuck Stewart, Al Spencer, Al Franzen, Bob Hesselbaum, Don Williams, Mr. Blackman, Mr. Hunter, John Krauss, Andy Sabados, and John Nieman.

The show consisted of many songs sung by the boys' chorus, such as "Thanks," "Annie Doesn't Live Here Any More," "Woodin' Head, Puddin' Head Jones," and the "Dark Town Strutters Ball"; the Forum Four," singing comical quartets; a group of guitar players strumming cow-boy songs; "Carey and Coats" playing an accordian duet; a trombone quartet; and last but not least, the famous "Laurel and Hardy" couple (Bob Richardson and John Kelley).

The Boys' Club and the Band donated $59 to the benefit fund for the widows and orphans of the firemen who were killed in the Woolworth fire on January 11. This sum was raised by these boys through a special Minstrel Show given on January 20th.

Delphi Mock Trial

It's queer how short my memory can be even on things as important as the decision of the biennial Mock Trial in the big assault and battery case, McLallen versus Burkhardt. I couldn't say whether Judge Robert Richards decided that Burkhardt did hit Betty, or whether he didn't. Somehow I lost the verdict in my interest in the fair lawyer.

Anyway the story ran like this. It seems that Betty made a date for Friday, April 13th, with Burton Burkhardt. Then, forgetting all her promises, she made a date for that same night with Bill Gawzner. As is usually the case, Bill arrived at the McLallen homestead right behind Burton. At the sight of his pal, Burton lost the famous Burkhardt temper and hit someone. The question was, did he hit Betty or Bill? Both appeared with black eyes the next day. Betty sued Burton because her black eye caused the cancellation of her movie contract. Her lawyers were Betty Trimble and Bob Reuss, while Manley Perry and Joe Suhler were the lawyers hired by Mr. Burkhardt. The trial was full of excitement to the end.

The play, under the direction of Miss Bredlow, Mr. Hunter and Mr. Blackman, was written entirely by a student committee: Daisy Cross, chairman; Joe Suhler, Manley Perry, Shirley Howard, Ralph McKinney, Robert Reuss, Ruth Johnson, Eleanor Steine and Burton Burkhardt.

Auroran Variety Show

A trip around the world on the magic carpet was the theme of the Auroran Variety Show, given in March under the auspices of the Auroran staff for the purpose of supplying part of the means of financing the school paper.

The carpet started on its journey from the labortory of a Hindu magician.

China was the first stop. Here the carpet descended into a Chinese theater and stopped long enough to witness the performance of a real Chinese play.

From there it sailed across the States to a Broadway theater where a musical revue was witnessed.

During its trip across the "Big Pond" the magic carpet spent an evening on board the ship "S. S." (Sink or Swim) to enjoy an old-fashioned melodrama.

The first stop on the other side was a newspaper office in Englemerica. A session of a Peace Conference in Switzerland also received a visit from this magic conveyance. In Paris it enjoyed the dancing and singing of a street scene.

The court of Rasputin where an American crooner was being tried was the last place visited before the carpet returned to the magician's laboratory.

Much of the success of the show was due to Miss Bredlow, the director and to Marianne Brandt and Ruth Johnson who assisted.

Boys' Club Party

During the term of 1933-34 the service committee under the leadership of Adolph Schindel, chairman, proved a great success. The committee consists of a representative from each class, Adolph Schindel chairman, Kenneth Hennig, Clement Coleman, Al Flynn, Raymond Runge. Among the three standing committees, namely social, program, service, the latter is the most interesting and difficult.

The biggest interest the boys have in this club is the annual Boys' Club Party, to which all the boys and men teachers are invited. This party is given so that the students may get better acquainted with each other. The last party November 19 was the biggest success during the Club's history; about six hundred boys attended. The program in the auditorium featured Bob Hesselbaum's Orchestra, "Laurel and Hardy," an accordian duet by Coats and Carey, "bathing beauties", and other numbers of a similar nature. After the stunts were given in the auditorium the boys went to the gym to see another program, which ended with the service committee's serving the refreshments.

The Boys' Club clothes some needy boys in school and sick students are given needed care. These facts are not generally known, but many deserving boys are kept in school through the club's help. Such activities as these are the real measure of an organization's worth.

Girls' Club Party

Once again the girls of East High witnessed a very important event of the year. Yes, it was the Girls' Club Freshman Initiation Party. The event took place February 16, in the auditorium and gym. The party is given annually by the club to acquaint the new girls in East High with the purpose and activities of the organization.

The girls assembled in the auditorium, and after everything was quiet (which I'll admit took quite a long time), the meeting was opened by Betty Trimble.

After the minutes of the last party were read and approved, Miss O'Neil gave a short talk telling the purpose of the party and the work of Girls' Club. Dorothy Mallette added gaiety to the program by playing a few popular selections on the piano; and Irene Backstrom sang, "There Goes My Heart".

Following this the new officers, namely, Evelyn Frisk, president, Dorothy Keck, vice-president, and Ruth Morey, secretary-treasurer, were installed.

The program was then turned over to the chairmen of the initiation committee, Edith Anderson, Violet Peterson, and Eleanor Stoner; who then initiated both the new officers and incoming Freshmen. What fun!

Later Bob Hesselbaum's orchestra furnished music for dancing in the gym, during which time refreshments were served.

Girls' Club Christmas Party

Approximately two hundred and fifty unfortunate children of the city were royally entertained at the Girls' Club Christmas Party given December 23, in the school gymnasium.

Members of the club called for the children and conducted them to the party, where a variety of toys were distributed by Reverend Clare—"Santa Claus for a day". The Aurora Boy Scouts and the city firemen cooperated whole-heartedly with the idea of the Christmas Party, and collected and repaired many of the play things which they donated to the children. Warm stockings and mittens were supplied by the Girls' Club, as were the refreshments. Each child received a paper bag containing an apple, a candy cane, a bag of popcorn, a popcorn ball, a bag of Christmas candy, and a few pieces of lemonade fudge.

The dolls presented to each little girl were dressed by club members who devoted much of their time to the promotion of the party.

Many kind friends helped to make the event possible through donations to the Beacon-News Empty Stocking Fund. The "Beacon-News" sponsors this fund each year, receiving contributions from the interested citizens of our city, and turning the fund over to the Girls' Club of East High. The happy smiles seen on the faces of the children amply repay for the donations and the work.

Annual Christmas Party

The glittering tree with all its tinsel and colored lights ushered in the holiday season at the annual school Christmas party, sponsored by the Student Council and the Boys' Club. This festivity, while providing entertainment for the present students also gives an opportunity for the alumni to once more enjoy the hospitality of East High, and to visit old friends and teachers.

At first, a delightful program was enjoyed in the auditorium when the third hour drama class, under the direction of Miss Bredlow presented a play, "Christmas Eve at Bracebridge Hall," the portrayal of an old English Christmas. The play itself is a dramatization of Washington Irving's "Christmas Eve" which was rewritten by Mary Godfrey. Old English dances, games and songs were used in order to make the effect more delightful.

Of course, the program was completed with a visit by "Santa Claus". The kind old fellow must have been watching our needs all through the year for without such close observation how could anyone know just who needed a new truck, football shoes, a box of dates or "Advice to the Love Lorn"?

Immediately following the program, the party was transferred to the gymnasium where dancing was enjoyed with Bob Hesselbaum's orchestra.

Entertainers

On December 14 and 15, the East High student body acted as the final proving ground for entertainers desiring to become members of the School Assembly Association, an association nation-wide in extent which furnished talent to high schools for special convocations.

Contestants came from many parts of the country and were given an opportunity to try out their various programs in our assembly hall, each endeavoring to have his number appear on the approved list.

On those dates all students having study hall, physical education or classes in the auditorium, together with principals from high schools throughout the country, assembled in the auditorium to act as judges of the entertainers. The entertainers who were approved may tour the high schools throughout the country giving their act.

Talks, songs, lectures, and pictures were presented by a native Australian, an opera company, a professor of the University of Michigan, a newspaper cameraman, an explorer and treasure hunter, the World's Fair Marionettes, and an artist and representative of the Chicago Art Insitute. To top off the all-day program, a male quartet, formerly of W. L. S., Chicago, gave a concert of popular, semi-classical, and classical tunes. All of these numbers were enjoyed by the students.

The Metropolitan Quartet

The first of the special convocations of the year, made possible through the Student Council and Kiwanis Club, was given September 7, to the entire student body.

On this date a quartet from the Metropolitan Concert Company entertained the student body. This quartet, under the direction of Mr. Davies, tenor, was composed of Miss Goodman, soprano, Miss Auyer, contralto, Mr. Van Buskirk, bass, and Miss Adolph, pianist.

The popular artists from the N. B. C. studios sang many of the famous old songs of golden days, including "Come to the Fair," "Home on the Range," "Joshua Fit the Battle of Jericho," "Old Man River," and "The Bells of St. Mary's." Delightful solos were also sung by each member of the quartet and Miss Adolph played a charming number on the piano. All of these were received enthusiasticaly by the students. Following these popular airs and solos, an excerpt from the opera, "Martha," was given in costume which naturally made the program still more interesting.

The Metropolitan Concert Company is somewhat of an old friend to Aurora students having appeared in our school twice before. The students enjoy their songs and pleasing personalities and assure them of a hearty welcome anytime they can visit us in our school again.

Mr. Zellner and Dr. Barker

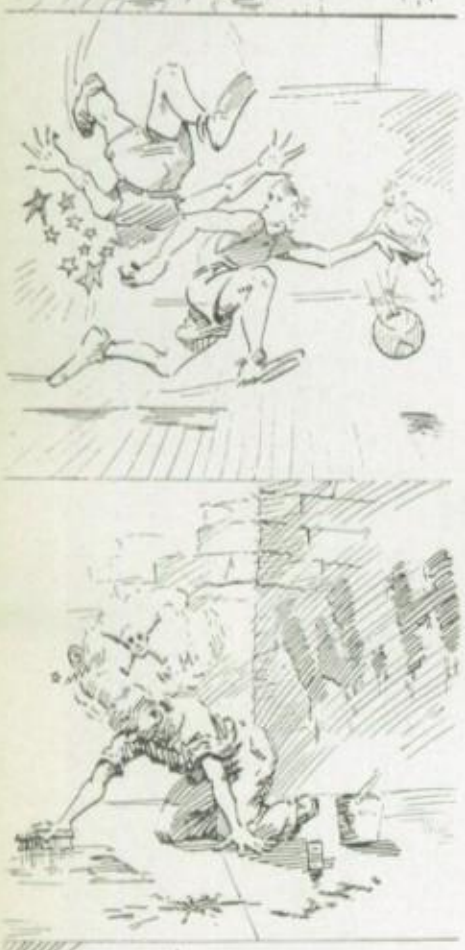
Never before had the students of East High witnessed such a brilliant and altogether different type of program as that given by Mr. Zellner, the well-known "Protean artist", on October 11. From his first impersonation, that of the famous old American humorist, Samuel Langhorne Clemens, to his last, that of the magnificent Saul of Tarsus, the audience was held spell-bound. He also impersonated the comical Huckleberry Finn, the tragical Benedict Arnold, the two distinguished generals of the North and South in the Civil War, Generals Grant and Lee, the three famous bible characters, Moses, Judas and Peter, the most famous man in American history, Abraham Lincoln, and the American opponent of slavery, John Brown.

The next program speaker was Dr. Barker, physical adviser to the late President Taft, who spoke on "How to Get the Most Out of Life." He believed that in order to attain and keep success one must possess "a strong arm, a clear head, and a brave heart." We shall always remember him for his definition of education which is "To train the mind and the will to do the work they have to do when that work ought to be done whether the individual wants to or not." Dr. Barker seemed to know just how high school students study and many are still applying his "come back" method with success.

Mr. Wilson and Mr. Crisler

"Free Wheeling Through Africa." That was the title of Mr. James Wilson's talk to the student body last January 17. Mr. Wilson, the erstwhile adventurer, journalist, college instructor, musician, and rancher, was the third speaker to appear before the student body at the special convocation programs. For six months he and his companion penetrated jungles and deserts of the dark continent, walking where white feet had never before trod, crossing Africa from coast to coast, north of Lake Tschad and covering a 1200 mile stretch of territory. The only means of transportation were motorcycles.

Our last speaker of the year was Mr. H. O. Crisler, one of A. A. Stagg's most celebrated athletes and the only man to handle both major sports in a university. At present he is head football and basketball coach at Princeton University. Having read a great deal of this man the students looked forward to having him with us. The subject of his talk was "Play the Game." He illustrated the many character developing qualities of major sports by specific examples chosen from his personal experiences in coaching football teams at both the University of Wisconsin and Princeton University. Since all high school students are interested in athletics, Mr. "Fritz" Crisler made a serious and lasting impression with both the boys and girls.



OUR CALENDAR

SEPTEMBER

5—1478 pupils, 356 of them freshmen, trudged back to school.

JUNE

1-2—Our band participated in the National Band contest at Des Moines, Iowa.

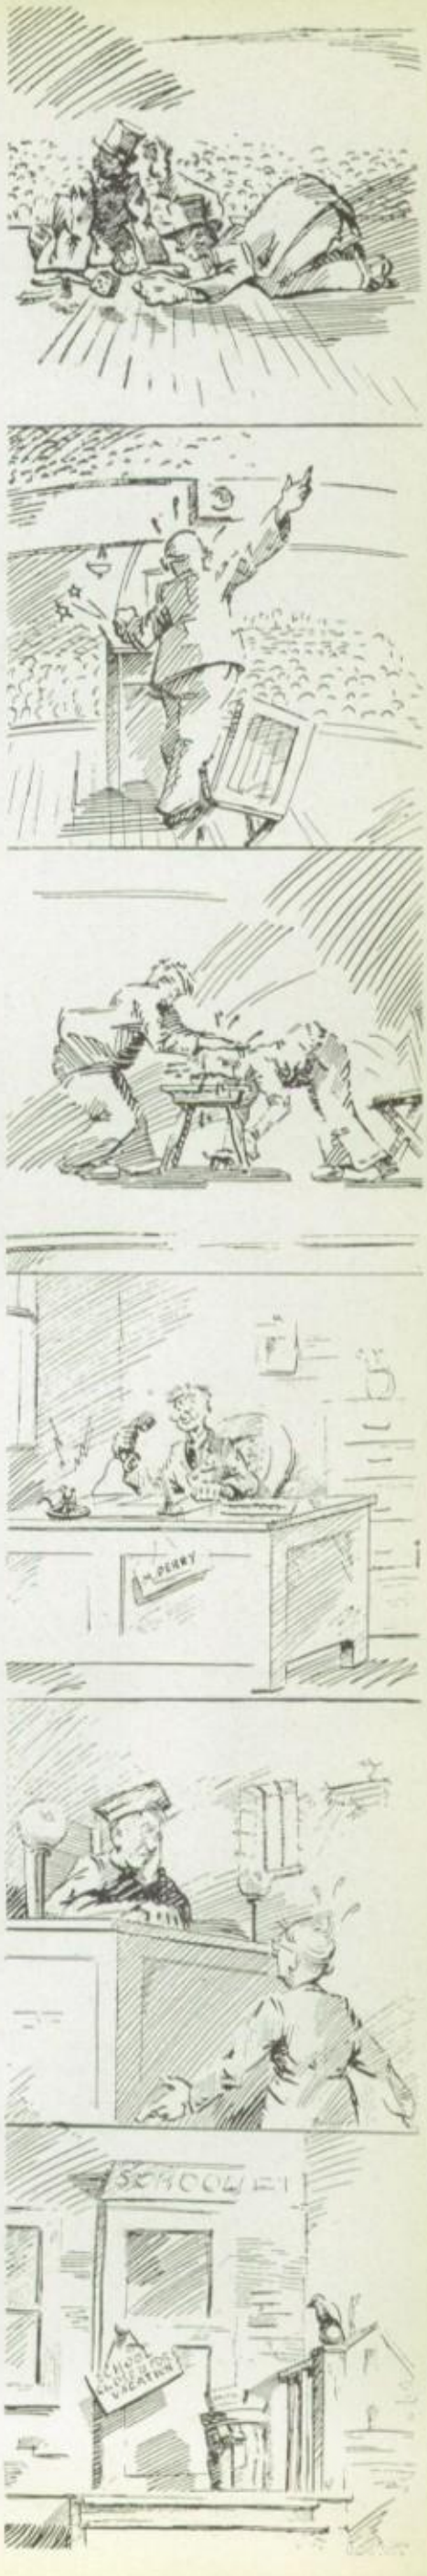
4—The seniors made their last public appearance at East High in the class day program.

10—Rev. Joseph Clare delivered the Senior Baccalaureate address.

11—The seniors held a banquet to celebrate their having finally completed the four years.

13—Notice how the seniors turned the tassels on their caps after they received their diplomas. They became people of the world then.

14—School's out! school's out! Hurrah!



AUTOGRAPHS

As the dew to the blossom, the bud to the bee,
As the scent to the rose, are those memories to me.
—Amelia B. Welby

AUTOGRAPHS

When time who steals our years away
Shall steal our pleasures too,
The mem'ry of the past will stay
And half our joys renew.
—Moore

AUTOGRAPHS

Friends depart, and memory takes them
To her caverns, pure and deep.
—Thomas Haynes Bayly

AUTOGRAPHS

Where is the heart that doth not keep,
Within its inmost core,
Some fond remembrance hidden deep,
Of days that are no more?

—Ellen C. Howarth
